

A true story well told...

You are an interesting person. Your essay should be yours.

Consider these examples of introductory paragraphs:

Generic

I am very honored to apply as an undergraduate for a degree in Education at the University of Very Smart Teachers because as long as I can remember I have had a great love affair with books. Since I was eleven I have known I wanted to be a teacher.

This is an example that represents 1,000 other people.

Specific

When I was eleven, my great-aunt Gretchen passed away and left me something that changed my life: a library of five thousand books. My best days were spent teaching my little brother about the things I had learned from them. Since then, I have wanted to be a teacher.

This is an example of a real thing which happened to a real person told simply.
