Reference Librarianship Peter Sprenkle, Charles R Anderson, 2013-04-03 A daily diary of actual interactions between a reference desk librarian and his patrons Reference Librarianship documents a year in the life of a young librarian working in the trenches at a library in the Midwestern United States This one of a kind book provides a daily diary of every librarian patron transaction no matter how mundane or absurd to demonstrate not only how advances in technology have affected the reference librarian s job but how the public s expectations have changed as well The book also includes observations by a now retired reference librarian on the current state of the field based on these unedited interactions Over the past two decades the job of reference librarian has seen many changes But in many ways reference desk work hasn t changed a bit with its mix of odd humorous routine and ridiculous requests that capture what it s like to deal with patrons day after day Reference Librarianship paints a clear picture of the field for library school students provides emotional and philosophical support to practitioners and reminds library administrators of what life was like on the front lines A sampling of the daily transactions documented in Reference Librarianship Monday May 19 2003 pencil pencil network down I tell people that I can t sign them up for an Internet terminal because the network is down and they just stand there staring into space One of them asks for three days worth of newspapers microfiche machine explanation Sorry Sir the network is still down multiply by twenty and insert randomly into the remainder of the day magic tricks but he pretty much knew where they were One of our large interior plate glass windows shattered No one was hurt and it made a fascinating noise like a crystal waterfall landing on soil Books on prostitution you know whores Someone from the County called to ask if any criminal activity had occurred on a particular street Someone else referred her to us She was dubious with good reason Math puzzles Okay I show him the books Just math Certainly I show him the books I need them in Spanish Grrr Reference Librarianship is an enlightening educational and entertaining look at the real world of reference desk work It s an essential read for reference librarians both public and academic library administrators and library school students as well as anyone who works with the public

Geo-Big Year Alan M. MacEachren,2022-11-22 A Geo Big Year Pandemic Retirement is for the Birds This book recounts a year long birding quest across Pennsylvania in 2021 The quest was to see at least 67 bird species in each of the state s 67 counties During the quest year the author now Professor of Geography Emeritus from Penn State University coped with the process of retiring after 42 years in academia and the challenges that the Covid 19 pandemic posed for safe travel The book chronicles the birding experiences and birds seen as well as the travel and retirement challenges The story told chronologically is focused on the search for birds It includes an account of what birds were seen or not seen in specific counties and specific sites within those counties It also recounts the quest itself as it unfolded Written by a Geographer places visited are also highlighted The narrative conveys the adventure of experiencing the mix of both popular and seldom visited places These places were mostly rural and included state and county parks game lands wildlife refuges trails and forests across the state together with less attractive places for humans that still attract birds such as cemeteries retention ponds and county dumps The book includes 471 black and white figures most of which are photo composites of birds seen and or of the places visited In total the 471 figures consist of more than 600 photos of birds plus more than 300 other images that include landscape scenes signage non bird creatures seen maps and graphs The book is intended for a wide audience Aspects of the account should resonate with readers who are or want to be birders are retired or contemplating retirement like to travel particularly on back roads and to natural places that are off the beaten track are academics thinking about work life balance have tried or thought about trying camping after not doing any for a long time have a bucket list to pursue have experienced life changes or expect to have some soon or have ever contemplated pursuing a birding big year or any other kind of year long quest
