Religion & Classical Warfare Matthew Dillon, Christopher Matthew, 2020-09-22 This study looks at destroying the gods of Rome s enemies wartime ceremonies the role of women in Republican warfare and even the gruesome live burials of people during times of military crisis Religion was integral to the conduct of war in the ancient world and the Romans were certainly no exception No campaign was undertaken no battle risked without first making sacrifice to propitiate the appropriate gods such as Mars god of War or consulting oracles and omens to divine their plans Yet the link between war and religion is an area that has been regularly overlooked by modern scholars examining the conflicts of these times This volume addresses that omission by drawing together the work of experts from across the globe The chapters have been carefully structured by the editors so that this wide array of scholarship combines to give a coherent comprehensive study of the role of religion in the wars of the Roman Republic Aspects considered in depth will include declarations of war evocatio and taking gods away from enemies dedications and ceremonies the cult of the legionary eagle the role of women in Republican warfare omens and divination live burials of people in times of military crisis and the rituals of the Roman triumph
