3,000 Quotations from the Writings of George MacDonald George MacDonald,2020-01-24 In this comprehensive collection of his thought readers of George MacDonald will discover what one of his editors Rolland Hein calls the strength and captivating moral beauty of his convictions Drawn from his sermons novels poetry and letters 3 000 Quotations from the Writings of George MacDonald distills MacDonald s exuberant celebration of the close connection between the human and the divine Harry Verploegh a lifelong collector of more than one hundred thousand useful and inspiring sayings from a variety of thinkers compiled these three thousand quotes under topics today s preachers speakers and writers will find both relevant and timely Quotations in the New Testament Crawford Howell Toy,1884 No proof is needed of the value of the quotations in the New Testament It is obvious that they help us very greatly to understand the material and the character of the New Testament thought They furnish a connecting link between the two great religious creations of the Hebrew race Israelitism and Christianity Old Testament and New Testament though substantially identical in their religious conceptions represent very different conditions of civilization and culture they are separated from each other not only by centuries of time but also by great social and political changes Throughout these changes however the sacred volume of the nation the Old Testament preserved its authority as divine revelation and supreme law of faith and life for the Christian evangelists and apostles as well as for the Jewish rabbis How then we naturally ask do the expounders of the new religious movement deal with the sacred books of their nation the writings of the ancient prophets and priests and sages What is their method of interpretation How do they understand the instructions exhortations and predictions of the past How do they fit the old order of things into the new It is the quotations that give us answers to these questions Preface Evil, Anger, and God Milton Crum,2008-05 Evil in Scripture denotes both suffering and behavior that causes it Anger often follows suffering Anger at people is condemned but anger at God is accepted because biblical faith portrays God as inflicting evil This faith calls for an understanding of language about God acting and a biblical theodicy revealing God s goodness both are provided Portrayals of God as inflicting evil do not deny that factually humans inflict it so the witness about human sin is included Final chapters offer biblical deliverances from evil The Liturgy Compared with the Bible ... Scripture Quotations and References of Such Parts of the Book of Common Prayer ... as are Not Direct Extracts from the Holy Scriptures Rev. Henry Ives Bailey,1857

The Theology of the Early Christian Church, exhibited in Quotations from the writers of the first three centuries: with reflections James BENNETT (D.D.),1855 Essays on Being Reformed Dirkie Smit,2009-12-01 What does it mean to be Reformed Christians in the world today and in Africa and South Africa What does it mean to commemorate the legacy of John Calvin 1509 1564 after 500 years in a modern world characterised by democracy by popular notions of human dignity and human rights by worldwide struggles for individual freedoms and for social justice by a global economy in crisis when social historians argue about the lasting contribution of Calvin and his followers precisely with respect to all these modern phenomena The 28 essays by Dirkie Smit selected for this volume deal with such questions      Salvation in the Gospel of Mark Gabi Markusse, 2018-06-28 The Gospel of Mark portrays Jesus making impossible demands on his disciples They must follow him even if it costs them their lives And unsurprisingly this proves to be impossible for them to do They fail drastically in Mark's narrative and run from the scene as Jesus is arrested Peter had been determined to stay by him unto death but even he was not able to admit to knowing Jesus at that crucial moment The strange thing is that Jesus made it clear that it is impossible to enter the Kingdom of God without this sort of radical discipleship In this narrative study of salvation in the Gospel of Mark this conundrum is studied closely with surprising results An investigation of various socio historical aspects of Mark's background elucidate the connection that Mark makes between the death of Jesus and the following of the disciples And a study of Mark's narrative as a whole shows that Mark provides hope for those without courage to follow If they continue to look and listen carefully the mystery will be unveiled to them      The Gospel of Mark John Schultz, 2013-10 John was born in Haarlem The Netherlands in 1930 He suffered starvation during Nazi occupation of Holland during World War II His father was imprisoned by the Nazis for six weeks for supplying the ten Boom family with ration cards though they never found this out John felt the call to ministry went to Bible School in Brussels Belgium and met and married his wife there They both felt a strong call to the mission field then Dutch New Guinea later Irian Jaya Indonesia and left for the mission field with The Christian Missionary Alliance we went out under the US mission shortly after their marriage They would spend the next thirty eight years on the mission field there before retiring to Toccoa GA in 1995 The Lord blessed them with four children and 17 grandchildren During his time on the mission field John started taught and ran a Bible School in Irian Jaya      Poetical Quotations from Chaucer to Tennyson Samuel Austin Allibone, 1878      Draper's Book of Quotations for the Christian World Edythe Draper, 1992
