What I Learned About Investing from Darwin Pulak Prasad, 2023-05-23 The investment profession is in a state of crisis The vast majority of equity fund managers are unable to beat the market over the long term which has led to massive outflows from active funds to passive funds Where should investors turn in search of a new approach Pulak Prasad offers a philosophy of patient long term investing based on an unexpected source evolutionary biology He draws key lessons from core Darwinian concepts mixing vivid examples from the natural world with compelling stories of good and bad investing decisions including his own How can bumblebees survival strategies help us accept that we might miss out on Tesla

What does an experiment in breeding tame foxes reveal about the traits of successful businesses Why might a small frog s mimicry of the croak of a larger rival shed light on the signs of corporate dishonesty Informed by successful evolutionary strategies Prasad outlines his counterintuitive principles for long term gain He provides three mantras of investing Avoid big risks buy high quality at a fair price and don t be lazy be very lazy Prasad makes a persuasive case for a strategy that rules out the vast majority of investment opportunities and advocates permanently owning high quality businesses Combining punchy prose and practical insight What I Learned About Investing from Darwin reveals why evolutionary biology can help fund managers become better at their craft

Beyond Child's Play Sally Edward,2017-07-05 Sustainable product design is more than eco design it goes beyond green to consider the work environment community impacts consumer health and economic viability as well as environmental attributes Beyond Child s Play explores the concept of sustainable product design in the context of the global doll making industry To initiate this research the author reviewed eco design parameters and developed criteria for sustainable product design in the doll making industry Using this framework she conducted three case studies of do I making the American Girl doll produced in China the Kathe Kruse doll produced in Germany and the Q ewar Project doll produced in Peru Themes emerged from this research that have relevance beyond the doll making industry the value of making a product with care designing work for human dignity intention and vision for sustainability the implications of materials choices and transparency and sustainability Sustainable product design calls for fundamentally new thinking By connecting the term sustainable to product we raise expectations for a radically different approach to design production and consumption This framework integrates the eco design principles of detoxification and dematerialization with the principle of humanization to ensure that the work environment where the product is made is safe and healthy and that local communities benefit from production This approach places increased responsibility on the industrial designer and decision makers throughout the supply chain including governments corporations and citizens Sustainable product design can be implemented effectively only when systems are in place that support sustainable production and consumption
