

Enlightenment, Revolution & Nationalism

Big Idea: The Enlightenment called into question traditional beliefs and inspired widespread political, economic, and social change. This intellectual movement was used to challenge political authorities in Europe and colonial rule in the Americas. These ideals inspired political and social movements.

1. Enlightenment thinkers developed political philosophies based on natural laws, which included the concepts of social contract, consent of the governed, and the rights of citizens.

Change Robert J. Sager, 2003 Europe against Revolution Matthijs Lok, 2023-02-21 Contemporary Europe seems to be divided between progressive cosmopolitans sympathetic to the European Union and the ideals of the Enlightenment and counter enlightened conservative nationalists extolling the virtues of homelands threatened by globalised elites and mass migration This study seeks to uncover the roots of historically informed ideas of Europe while at the same time underlining the fundamental differences between the writings of the older counter revolutionary Europeanists and their self appointed successors and detractors in the twenty first century In the decades around 1800 the era of the French Revolution counter revolutionary authors from all over Europe defended European civilisation against the onslaught of nationalist revolutionaries bent on the destruction of the existing order or so they believed In opposition to the new revolutionary world of universal and abstract principles the counter revolutionary publicists proclaimed the concept of a gradually developing European society and political order founded on a set of historical and ultimately divine institutions that had guaranteed Europe's unique freedom moderation diversity and progress since the fall of the Roman Empire These counter revolutionary Europeanists drew on the cosmopolitan Enlightenment and simultaneously criticized its alleged revolutionary legacy Throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries these ideas of European history and civilisation were rediscovered and adapted to new political contexts shaping in manifold ways our contested idea of European history and memory until today

World History: Connections to Today Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis, Pearson/Prentice Hall, 2003-12 The Enlightenment and the Age of Revolution, 1700-1850 John E. Sweetman, 1998 This inaugural volume takes us from the ancien regime the world of Handel Tiepolo Beaumarchais and Haydn where the artist was the servant of court based patronage via the catalysts of the Enlightenment and the French Revolution to a new world the world of Byron Beethoven Goya and Turner where artists were increasingly autonomous and entrepreneurial finding their own inspirations and searching out new audiences for their output

Debating the Slave Trade Srividhya Swaminathan, 2016-05-13 How did the arguments developed in the debate to abolish the slave trade help to construct a British national identity and character in the late eighteenth century Srividhya

Swaminathan examines books pamphlets and literary works to trace the changes in rhetorical strategies utilized by both sides of the abolitionist debate Framing them as competing narratives engaged in defining the nature of the Briton Swaminathan reads the arguments of pro and anti abolitionists as a series of dialogues among diverse groups at the center and peripheries of the empire Arguing that neither side emerged triumphant Swaminathan suggests that the Briton who emerged from these debates represented a synthesis of arguments and that the debates to abolish the slave trade are marked by rhetorical transformations defining the image of the Briton as one that led naturally to nineteenth century imperialism and a sense of global superiority Because the slave trade debates were waged openly in print rather than behind the closed doors of Parliament they exerted a singular influence on the British public At their height between 1788 and 1793 publications numbered in the hundreds spanned every genre and circulated throughout the empire Among the voices represented are writers from both sides of the Atlantic in dialogue with one another such as key African authors like Ignatius Sancho Phillis Wheatley and Olaudah Equiano West India planters and merchants and Quaker activist Anthony Benezet Throughout Swaminathan offers fresh and nuanced readings that eschew the view that the abolition of the slave trade was inevitable or that the ultimate defeat of pro slavery advocates was absolute Historical Abstracts ,1997 1650-1850 Kevin L. Critical Theories of Anti-Semitism Jonathan Judaken, 2024-06-04 Despite its persistence and viciousness anti-Semitism remains undertheorized in comparison with other forms of racism and discrimination How should anti-Semitism be defined What are its underlying causes Why do anti-Semites target Jews In what ways has Judeophobia changed over time What are the continuities and disconnects between medieval anti-Judaism and the Holocaust How does criticism of the state of Israel relate to anti-Semitism And how can social theory illuminate the upsurge in attacks on Jews today Considering these questions and many more this book is at once a philosophical reflection on key problems in the analysis of anti-Semitism and a history of its leading theories and theorists Jonathan Judaken explores the methodological and conceptual issues that have vexed the study of Judeophobia and calls for a reconsideration of the definitions categories and narratives that underpin overarching explanations He traces how a range of thinkers have wrestled with these challenges examining the theories of Jean Paul Sartre the Frankfurt School Hannah Arendt and Jean Fran ois Lyotard alongside the works of sociologists Talcott Parsons and Zygmunt Bauman and historians L on Poliakov and George Mosse Judaken argues against claims about the uniqueness of Judeophobia demonstrating how it is entangled with other racisms Islamophobia Negrophobia and xenophobia Critical Theories of Anti Semitism not only urges readers to question how they think about Judeophobia but also draws them into conversation with a range of leading thinkers whose insights are sorely needed in this perilous moment Our World's Story,1997 The Conservation Movement Miles Glendinning,2013 Winner of the 2016 Antoinette Forrester Downing Award presented by the Society of Architectural Historians In many cities across the world particularly in Europe old buildings form a prominent part of the built environment and we often take it for granted that their contribution is intrinsically positive How has that widely shared belief come about and is its continued general acceptance inevitable Certainly ancient structures have long been treated with care and reverence in many societies including classical Rome and Greece But only in modern Europe and America in the last two centuries has this care been elaborated and energised into a forceful dynamic ideology a Conservation Movement infused with a sense of historical destiny and loss that paradoxically shared many of the characteristics of Enlightenment modernity The close inter relationship between conservation and modern civilisation was most dramatically heightened in periods of war or social upheaval beginning with the French Revolution and rising to a tragic climax in the 20th century age of totalitarian extremism more recently the troubled relationship of heritage and global commercialism has become dominant Miles Glendinning s new book authoritatively presents for the first time the entire history of this architectural Conservation Movement and traces its dramatic fluctuations in ideas and popularity ending by questioning whether its recent international ascendancy can last indefinitely The Longevity Revolution Robert N. Butler,2009-09-08 Pulitzer prize winning author Dr Robert Butler coined the term ageism and made Alzheimer s a familiar word Now he brings his formidable knowledge and experience in aging issues to a recent and unprecedented achievement the extension of human life expectancy by thirty years As Butler shows our society had not yet adapted to this change The U S has not made a research investment in aging Only eleven medical schools out of 145 have geriatrics departments compared to England where geriatrics is the number two specialty We have not solidified private pension plans or strengthened Social Security to ensure that people do not outlive their resources In this urgent and ultimately optimistic book Dr Butler shows why and how we must re examine our personal and societal approach to aging right now so that the boomers and the generations that follow may have a financially secure vigorous and healthy final chapter life Improvement and Enlightenment Thomas Martin Devine,1989 Writing Environments Sidney I.
