Animal Habitat Diorama Ideas:

Informal Mathematics and Science Education ,1998 ENC Focus ,1998 The Sublimity of Document Scott MacDonald,2019 The Sublimity of Document Cinema as Diorama is a collection of in depth substantive interviews with moving image artists working avant doc that is making films that explore the territory between documentary and experimental cinema The book uses the early history of the museum habitat diorama of animal life specifically the Hall of African Mammals at the American Museum of Natural History as a way of rethinking both early and modern cinema document and especially those recent filmmakers and films that are devoted to providing viewers with panoramic documentations of places and events that otherwise they might never have opportunities to experience in person This international collection of 27 interviews follows on MacDonald s earlier Avant Doc Intersections of Documentary and Avant Garde Cinema Oxford 2015 The interviews organized panoramically within the collection are dense with information and insight and readable by specialists and non specialists alike In most instances these are the most in depth and expansive sometimes the first interviews with these filmmakers Together these interviews offer an engaging panorama of the recent history and geography of cinema devoted to documenting the world around us as well as an in depth look at the challenges and accomplishments of filmmakers willing to go anywhere on the planet or on the internet to document what they believe we need to see MacDonald s general introduction provides an overall context for the collection which includes interviews with Ron Fricke Gustav Deutsch Laura Poitras Fred Wiseman Nikolaus Geyrhalter Bill Morrison Brett Story Abbas Kiarostami Lois Pati o Dominic Gagnon Erin Espelie Yance Ford Janet Biggs Carlos Adriano Craig Johnson Ben Russell Betzy Bromberg James Benning Maxim Pozdorovkin along with several veterans of Harvard s Sensory Ethnography Lab and with the executive directors of the distributor Documentary Educational Resources which has served the field of independent documentary for nearly fifty years each interview is introduced with MacDonald s overview of the interviewee s life and work The book includes filmographies and selected bibliographies for all the filmmakers Winged Worlds Olga Petri,Michael Guida,2023-06-26 This edited collection explores our often surprising modes of co inhabiting the cultural and aerial worlds of birds It focuses on our encounters with non captive birds and the cultural geographies of feathered flight This book offers a timely contribution to the more than human geographies of flight space and territory The chapters support an ethics of attention as a new basis for the conservation and cultivation of aerial habitats Contributions adopt an interdisciplinary approach to the patterns of intrusion and escape that shape our encounters with birds and unsettle our traditionally terrestrial concepts of space Each chapter focuses on a different aspect of our shared lives with birds ranging from scientific observation to the social media enabled spectacle of co habitation and spatial competition Written in a thought provoking style this book seeks to address a dearth of critical perspectives on the cultural geographies of flight and its implications for the ways in which we understand common spaces around and above us in the context of any effort at conservation

Habitat Dioramas Karen Wonders, 1993 Natural History Dioramas Sue Dale Tunnicliffe, Annette Scheersoi, 2014-12-05 This book brings together in a unique perspective aspects of natural history dioramas their history construction and rationale interpretation and educational importance from a number of different countries from the west coast of the USA across Europe to China It describes the journey of dioramas from their inception through development to visions of their future A complementary journey is that of visitors and their individual sense making and construction of their understanding from their own starting points often interacting with others e g teachers peers parents as well as media e g labels Dioramas have been hitherto a rather neglected area of museum exhibits but a renaissance is beginning for them and their educational importance in contributing to people s understanding of the natural world This volume showcases how dioramas can reach a wide audience and increase access to biological knowledge

Nature's Ghosts Mark V. Barrow, 2024-05-31 The rapid growth of the American environmental movement in recent decades obscures the fact that long before the first Earth Day and the passage of the Endangered Species Act naturalists and concerned citizens recognized and worried about the problem of human caused extinction As Mark V Barrow reveals in Nature s Ghosts the threat of species loss has haunted Americans since the early days of the republic From Thomas Jefferson s day when the fossil remains of such fantastic lost animals as the mastodon and the woolly mammoth were first reconstructed through the pioneering conservation efforts of early naturalists like John James Audubon and John Muir Barrow shows how Americans came to understand that it was not only possible for entire species to die out but that humans themselves could be responsible for their extinction With the destruction of the passenger pigeon and the precipitous decline of the bison professional scientists and wildlife enthusiasts alike began to understand that even very common species were not safe from the juggernaut of modern industrial society That realization spawned public education and legislative campaigns that laid the foundation for the modern environmental movement and the preservation of such iconic creatures as the bald eagle the California condor and the whooping crane A sweeping beautifully illustrated historical narrative that unites the fascinating stories of endangered animals and the dedicated individuals who have studied and struggled to protect them Nature s Ghosts offers an unprecedented view of what we ve lost and a stark reminder of the hard work of preservation still ahead

Life on Display Karen A. Rader,Victoria E.M. Cain,2014-10-03 Rich with archival detail and compelling characters Life on Display uses the history of biological exhibitions to analyze museums shifting roles in twentieth century American science and society Karen A Rader and Victoria E M Cain chronicle profound changes in these exhibitions and the institutions that housed them between 1910 and 1990 ultimately offering new perspectives on the history of museums science and science education Rader and Cain explain why science and natural history museums began to welcome new audiences between the 1900s and the 1920s and chronicle the turmoil that resulted from the introduction of new kinds of biological displays They describe how these displays of life changed dramatically once again in the 1930s and 1940s as museums negotiated changing often conflicting interests of scientists educators and visitors The authors then reveal how museum staffs facing intense public and scientific scrutiny experimented with wildly different definitions of life science and life science education from the 1950s through the 1980s The book concludes with a discussion of the influence that corporate sponsorship and blockbuster economics wielded over science and natural history museums in the century s last decades A vivid entertaining study of the ways science and natural history museums shaped and were shaped by understandings of science and public education in the twentieth century United States Life on Display will appeal to historians sociologists and ethnographers of American science and culture as well as museum practitioners and general readers

Redisplaying Museum Collections Dr Hannah Paddon,2014-11-28 This is the first book to examine in depth the multi million pound redisplay and reinterpretation process in British museums in the early twenty first century Acknowledging the importance of the Heritage Lottery Fund HLF as project catalyst Hannah Paddon explains and explores the complex process from the initial stages of project conceptualisation to the final stages of museum re opening and exhibition evaluation She also provides an in depth look using three case study museums at the factors which shape each museum redisplay project including topics such as museum architecture government agendas and the exhibition team Finally the book offers discussions and conclusions around pitfalls and successes and thoughts about the future of collection redisplay
