Marcaccio, Mia Roth-Čerina, Carla Sentieri, Neal Sashore, Federica Vannucchi, Hanne Van Reusel, 2024-05-16 Almost 40% of architecture graduates choose not to practise as architects. Instead, by leaving their chosen profession, this surprisingly large but vastly overlooked cohort are making significant contributions to a wide range of other sectors from politics to videogame design, demonstrating that architectural training can be a pathway to roles and even leadership opportunities across a variety of other professions. Architecture's Afterlife is the first book to examine the sectors into which these graduates migrate and to identify the transferable skills that are learned but not always taught in their degree programmes and that prove most useful in their new careers. The book, a result of a three-year pan-European study funded by Erasmus, provides a roadmap for increasing graduate employment, addressing skills shortages across all sectors and adapting curricula to changing professional landscapes. It is therefore essential reading for all those responsible for curriculum design and delivery in architecture and other disciplines, including deans, professors, postgraduate researchers, and policy makers, as well as students and professionals seeking to expand their career prospects.

Personalism and Metaphysics Juan Manuel Burgos, 2023-09-26 Personalism seeks to understand the person in its richness, complexity, and unity, and to achieve this goal it has developed a rich and solid anthropology as well as an ethic of the person that is having repercussions in the philosophical and sociopolitical sphere. But what is the value of this philosophy? Does it offer a mere description of the reality of a phenomenological type, or does it penetrate to the bottom of what exists, offering its intelligible essence? Does it offer an ultimate explanation of the person, or is her vision subordinated to a deeper and more decisive one that would correspond to metaphysics? To answer these questions, the author, an international expert in personalist philosophy, first defines the various meanings in which the term metaphysics can be understood, and secondly, does a comparison between personalism in particular, integral Personalism, and the metaphysics of being. The analysis concludes that personalism can be considered a first sectoral philosophy that is a philosophy that does not need other philosophical referents to establish itself as a philosophy thanks to its direct access to experience where the person is found. This conclusion is based on the epistemology of integral experience and imposes a review of the traditional role of metaphysics and its connection with anthropology in general and Personalism in particular.

Internationalizing Firms Adriana Calvelli, Chiara Cannavale, 2018-10-11 This book explores emerging trends in internationalization, analyzing the processes and steps that firms take when entering new markets. This timely contribution highlights the need for a deeper understanding of today's internationalization process, critiquing existing literature and instead proposing a new paradigm based on a re-interpretation of the Resource-based View (RBV). Analysing the motives behind internationalizing, the factors affecting entry choices, and the challenges connected to outsourcing and offshoring, the authors present a new framework for understanding the reasons behind internationalization and the financial risks that are involved. With theoretical discussion and empirical case studies, this book seeks to offer an informed insight into internationalizing, making it an invaluable read for those researching entrepreneurship on a global scale.
