Fashioning the Afropolis Kerstin Pinther, Kristin Kastner, Elizabeth Wilson, Basile Ndjio, 2022-09-22 A revelation Reclaiming fashion from its European history Shane White With a focus on sub Saharan Africa Fashioning the Afropolis provides a range of innovative perspectives on global fashion design dress photography and the body in some of the major cities with a focus on Lagos Johannesburg Dakar and Douala It contributes to the ongoing debates around the globalization of fashion and fashion theory by exploring fashion as a genuine urban phenomenon on the continent and among its diasporas To date fashion and city have not been systematically related to each other in the African context and for too long a western centric gaze has dominated scholarship resulting in the perception of Africa as provincial and its visual arts and textile cultures as static and folkloristic This perspective is all the more distorted given Africa's rich sartorial past With a huge number of tailors ready to adapt and renew clothing reshaping garments into contemporary styles and many cities in Africa becoming hot spots for a steadily growing and well connected scene of fashion designers in the past 20 years the time is ripe for a reevaluation and reconsideration of the fashionscapes of Africa Leading scholars offer an updated empirical and theoretical foundation on which to base new and exciting research on sub Saharan fashion challenging perceptions and offering new insights

The Ex Factor Tu-Shonda Whitaker, 2008-12-18 This emotional erotically charged novel follows three half sisters and their complicated relationships with one another and with the men in their lives Celeste thinks all she wants in life are her family and a nice home in the suburbs Yet lately she's got a hunch that her sexy husband Sharief a New York City policeman is patrolling more than just the streets Celeste is sure he's cheating on her When she finds out that the home wrecker is none other than her own sister Monica all hell breaks loose Monica never intended to fall in love with her sister's husband But who knew that Sharief would make every inch of her body tingle with a single touch Monica knows she should have righted her wrong before Celeste found out but she's in too deep in more ways than one Imani is not pleased that her low life boyfriend Walik just got out of the slammer and wants her back Sure enough trouble comes knocking But when a fine Puerto Rican DJ named Kree seduces her and showers her son Jamal with attention Imani finally gets a shot at happiness and ghetto free love Fielding the curve balls tossed their way Celeste Monica and Imani learn that it takes more than sisterhood to cope with love life and men the ones they've got and that elusive ex factor

Rap and Religion Ebony A. Utley, 2012-06-11 This book provides an enlightening representative account of how rappers talk about God in their lyrics and why a sense of religion plays an intrinsic role within hip hop culture Why is the battle between good and evil a recurring theme in rap lyrics What role does the devil play in hip hop What exactly does it mean when rappers wear a diamond encrusted Jesus around their necks Why do rappers acknowledge God during award shows and frequently include prayers in their albums Rap and Religion Understanding the Gangsta s God tackles a sensitive and controversial topic the juxtaposition and seeming hypocrisy of references to God within hip hop culture and rap music This book provides a focused examination of the intersection of God and religion with hip hop and rap music Author Ebony A Utley PhD references selected rap lyrics and videos that span three decades of mainstream hip hop culture in America representing the East Coast the West Coast and the South in order to account for how and why rappers talk about God Utley also describes the complex urban environments that birthed rap music and sources interviews award acceptance speeches magazine and website content and liner notes to further explain how God became entrenched in hip hop The
