Amazing Grace Jonathan Kozol Chapter Summary:

The Skeptical, Passionate Christian Michael F. Duffy, 2006-01-01 In the tone of a much loved college chaplain Duffy takes readers through a personal theological journey exploring what it means to discern and live out a thoughtful informed and responsible faith

A Theology as Big as the City Raymond J Bakke, 2025-07-29 As we look at the world class cities around our planet we face five new urban realities a crack cocaine epidemic assault weapons massive numbers of homeless children HIV AIDS and in the U S what Time magazine has called the browning of America The needs of the urban population are greater than ever As our cities swell with immigrants I m reminded that Jesus was born in a borrowed barn in Asia and became an African refugee in Egypt so the Christmas story is about an international migrant Furthermore a whole village full of baby boys died for Jesus before he had the opportunity to die for them on the cross Surely this Jesus understands the pain of children who die for the sins of adults in our cities How does God see the city What does Scripture have to say about urban ministry These are the questions Ray Bakke has systematically addressed beginning with Genesis and continuing through to Revelation Here is a biblical theology that will constantly surprise and challenge as you get a glimpse of how big God s view of the city really is

Ethics in Light of Childhood John Wall, 2010-08-12 Childhood faces humanity with its own deepest and most perplexing questions An ethics that truly includes the world's childhoods would transcend pre modern traditional communities and modern rational autonomy with a postmodern aim of growing responsibility It would understand human relations in a poetic rather than universalistic sense as openly and interdependently creative As a consequence it would produce new understandings of moral being time and otherness as well as of religion rights narrative families obligation and power Ethics in Light of Childhood fundamentally reimagines ethical thought and practice in light of the experiences of the third of humanity who are children Much like humanism feminism womanism and environmentalism Wall argues a new childism is required that transforms moral thinking relations and societies in fundamental ways Wall explores childhood's varied impacts on ethical thinking throughout history advances the emerging interdisciplinary field of childhood studies and reexamines basic assumptions in contemporary moral theory and practice In the process he does not just apply ethics to childhood but applies childhood to ethics in order to imagine a more expansive humanity

Restorers of Hope Amy L. Sherman, 2004-11-04 It's easy to get discouraged at the reports of continuing decay in our inner cities and impoverished rural areas Yet in the midst of the dark realities some churches are transforming lives and reclaiming communities through effective holistic ministries Restorers of Hope tells their stories and identifies the keys to their success And it goes further by challenging churches to take up Christ's command to love your neighbor and offering specific practical guidance on how to reach out By understanding the challenges of persistent poverty and the opportunities afforded by welfare reform you and your church will be better equipped to engage in redemptive ministry that presents the gospel as the true solution Reading, Writing, and Justice James W. Fraser, 1997-07-24 Fraser argues that advocates of the public schools must recapture and redefine democracy so that it becomes both the purpose of public education and the model on which schools are structured Defending an inclusive understanding of democracy in which every citizen's contribution is essential to the health of the whole Fraser responds to mean spirited attacks on multicultural education on school funding and on progressive education itself Finally he explores the democratic and antidemocratic potential in increased use of computers in schools and in the reform of teacher education This is a book for teachers parents and other concerned citizens who care about public education who want schools to be democratic in the best sense and who seek ammunition for defending schools and for placing school issues in the larger context of the long struggle for a more just and humane society
