

American Government Chapter 9

Political Parties

- Political parties- groups of people with similar interests who work together to create and implement policies
 - Gain control of government and win elections
 - Nominate candidates
- Party platform- the positions on critical issues that political parties take
- Political parties did not exist in the early american republic
- The first political parties were formed after the revolution: federalists and anti-federalists
 - Anti-federalists later became the Democratic-Republicans
 - Federalists collapsed after the War of 1812
- The election of 1824 started the second party system creating democrats and republicans (whig party)
 - Beginning of modern political parties
- Political machines- organizations that secure the votes for party's candidates or supported the party in other ways
- Personal politics- focused on building direct relationships with voters rather than on promoting specific issues
 - Used by the democratic party
- Democratic party had control from 1828 to lincoln's election
- Third parties- political parties that are formed as alternatives to the republican or democratic parties
 - Populist party formed in 1892
- Theodore Roosevelt attempted to form a third party called the Progressive Party (1912)
 - Middle class, wanted worker reform
- Dixiecrats and Progressive party resurgence in 1948
- Two party system started because with one congressional seat being tied to geographic district, it leads to dominance by two major parties
- Most elections are winner take all
 - Require that the winner receive majority or plurality of voters
- Plurality Voting (first-past-the-post)- based on the principle that the individual candidates with the most votes wins, despite the majority
- Proportional electoral system- parties advertise who is on their candidate list and voters pick a party, then legislative seats are given based on support percent
- Majoritarian voting- a candidate wins only if they have the support of a majority of voters
