Wahba, Zeinab A. Taha, Liz England, 2013-04-15 This landmark volume offers an introduction to the field of teaching Arabic as a foreign or second language Recent growth in student numbers and the demand for new and more diverse Arabic language programs of instruction have created a need that has outpaced the ability of teacher preparation programs to provide sufficient numbers of well qualified professional teachers at the level of skill required Arabic language program administrators anticipate that the increases in enrollment will continue into the next decades More resources and more varied materials are seriously needed in Arabic teacher education and training The goal of this Handbook is to address that need The most significant feature of this volume is its pioneer role in approaching the field of Arabic language teaching from many different perspectives It offers readers the opportunity to consider the role status and content of Arabic language teaching in the world today The Handbook is intended as a resource to be used in building Arabic language and teacher education programs and in guiding future academic research Thirty four chapters authored by leaders in the field are organized around nine themes Background of Arabic Language Teaching Contexts of Arabic Language Teaching Communicative Competence in Arabic The Learners Assessment Technology Applications Curriculum Development Design and Models Arabic Language Program Administration and Management and Planning for the Future of Arabic Language Learning and Teaching The Handbook for Arabic Language Teaching Professionals in the 21st Century will benefit and be welcomed by Arabic language teacher educators and trainers administrators graduate students and scholars around the world It is intended to create dialogue among scholars and professionals in the field and in related fields dialogue that will contribute to creating new models for curriculum and course design materials and assessment tools and ultimately better instructional effectiveness for all Arabic learners everywhere in both Arabic speaking and non Arabic speaking countries

Trends and Developments for the Future of Language Education in Higher Education Xiang, Catherine Hua, 2021-06-25 Language education tends to require more face to face interaction and longer hours of both teaching and learning The challenges of ensuring the future and development of the discipline especially after a time of crisis is equally unprecedented A comprehensive overview of the global picture of best practices as well as research in recent times are needed in the field of language education particularly in higher education settings The changing nature of language education in terms of its policy curriculum design methodology and innovation is an essential discussion to advance the field It is critical to explore how a more collaborative global and interdisciplinary mindset as well as technologically driven approaches have emerged through recent years and how it will continue to shape the future development in the field Trends and Developments for the Future of Language Education in Higher Education captures the current trends and ongoing development within language education through a global picture of the best practices as well as the latest research on language education in higher education settings The chapters cover changes in policy curriculum design methodology and innovation in the modern language education landscape While focusing on the current situation of language education and the changes that it has been undergoing this book also provides information on future development and the overall outlook of language education This book is ideal for teachers instructional designers curricula developers inservice and preservice teachers administrators teacher educators practitioners researchers academicians and students looking for an overview of the current position of language education in higher education

Arabizi as a Learning and Teaching Resource Zinnia Shweiry, 2025-01-23 This book is the first of its genre to explore the use of Arabizi the Romanized script of the Arabic language that is used online or in chat apps in the Arabic as a Foreign Language AFL classroom It fills a noticeable and glaring gap in teaching a non Romanized language through Romanized representation by observing and studying Arabizi as a resource that is yet to be acknowledged As such the author aptly and concurrently addresses concerns and problems that arise in AFL learning An essential resource for studies in language acquisition the author carves a new niche in the study of phonology and phonetics particularly so in L1 and L2 studies with succinct and up to date examples Relevant to applied linguistics and language educators in Arabic it also draws comparisons between Chinese and Arabic alphabets in analyzing L1 and L2 purposes making it a unique linguistic comparative contribution to the study of languages in classroom settings Al-'Arabiyya Karin C. Ryding, 2015-11-16 Al Arabiyya is the annual journal of the American Association of Teachers of Arabic and serves scholars in the United States and abroad Al Arabiyya includes scholarly articles and reviews that advance the study research and teaching of Arabic language linguistics literature and pedagogy The Language Educator, 2007 Alif Baa, Arabic L2 Interlanguage Ghassan Husseinali, 2015-10-23 Arabic L2 Interlanguage is a significant and timely addition to the field of Second Language Acquisition providing valuable insight into the development of interlanguage the interim language of early beginners in learners of Arabic This book Clearly establishes what interlanguage is and why it should form an important part of foreign language teaching Presents the reader with a sequence in which six English speaking learners of Arabic acquire the language Makes use of the rich morphological and syntactic property of Arabic to offer a new perspective on the field of Second Language Acquisition Arabic L2 Interlanguage contributes directly towards building a more comprehensive theoretical framework for explaining how L2s are acquired It will be key text for SLA scholars as well as an important resource for graduate students in Linguistics and Foreign Language Teaching Business Networks in Syria Bassam S. A. Haddad, 2011-12-07 Collusion between business communities and the state can lead to a measure of security for those in power but this kind of interaction often limits new development In Syria state business involvement through informal networks has contributed to an erratic economy. With unique access to private businessmen and select state officials during a critical period of transition, this book examines Syria's political economy from 1970 to 2005 to explain the nation's pattern of state intervention and prolonged economic stagnation. As state income from oil sales and aid declined, collusion was a bid for political security by an embattled regime. To achieve a modicum of economic growth, the Syrian regime would develop ties with select members of the business community, reserving the right to reverse their inclusion in the future. Haddad ultimately reveals that this practice paved the way for forms of economic agency that maintained the security of the regime but diminished the development potential of the state and the private sector.
