Feminist Time Against Nation Time Victoria Hesford, Lisa Diedrich, 2009-12-01 Feminist Time Against Nation Time offers a series of essays that explore the complex and oftentimes contradictory relationship between feminism and nationalism through a problematization of temporality Although there has been much recent discussion in the U S of the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and the War on Terror as signaling a new period of permanent war feminist voices have not been at all prominent in this discussion This collection considers not only the ways in which public spaces for dissent are limited but also the ways in which the time for such dissent is cut short Feminist Time Against Nation Time combines philosophical examinations of Women's Time by Julia

Kristeva and The Time of Thought by Elizabeth Grosz with essays offering case studies of particular events including Kelly Oliver's essay on the media coverage of the U.S. wars on terror and in Afghanistan and Iraq and Betty Joseph's on the anti-colonial uses of women's time in the creation of nineteenth century Indian nationalism Feminist Time Against Nation Time juxtaposes feminist time against nation time in order to consider temporalities that are at once contrary to but also drawing toward each other Yet Hesford and Diedrich also argue that because as an untimely project feminism necessarily operates in a different temporality from that of the nation againstness is also used to provoke a rupture a momentary opening up of a disjuncture between the two that will allow us to explore the possibilities of creating a space and time for feminists to think against the current of the present moment The Advocate, 2002-01-22 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States

NB by J.C. James Campbell, 2023-04-27 A The Spectator and Observer Book of the Year The NB column in the Times Literary Supplement signed at the foot by J.C. occupied the back page of the paper for thirteen years For a decade before that it was in the middle pages That's roughly 60 000 words a year for twenty three years The purpose of the initials was not to disguise the author but to offer complete freedom to the persona J.C. was irreverent and whimsical The column punctured pomposity hypocrisy and cant in the literary world as one correspondent put it skewering contemporary absurdities whether those resulting from identity politics or from academic jargon Readers came to expect reports from the Basement Labyrinth where all executive decisions are made and where annual literary prizes were judged and administered These included the Most Unoriginal Title Prize for a new book bearing a title that had been used by several other authors eg The Kindness of Strangers the Incomprehensibility Prize for impenetrable academic writing the Jean Paul Sartre Prize for Prize Refusal and the All Must Have Prizes Prize for authors who have never won anything Readers of NB by J.C. will find an off beat guide to our cultural times The book begins in 2001 and proceeds to 2020 The substantial Introduction offers a history of the TLS itself from birth through the precarious stages of its adaptation and survival Alternative Library Literature, 1986

India Diversity Hilda David, Francis Jarman, 2017-01-31 The more you look around the world at the chaos conflict horror and repression in the name of religious ideology not least in the lands very close to India the more you realise how Nehru for all his imperfections got the biggest question right Now that India is finally positioning itself for a spectacular economic takeoff it is not the right time to endanger that by opening the can of worms that is communalism
