 - Implied: Powers not specifically mentioned in the Constitution, but may reasonably deduced from those that are.
 - Inherent: Powers that are possessed by all national governments

B. Strict Versus Liberal Construction

1. Strict constructionists (led by Thomas Jefferson) believed Congress should exercise only its expressed powers and those implied powers absolutely necessary to carry out those expressed powers. The value of government most valued was State government.
2. Liberal constructionists believe that the Constitution must be interpreted broadly, with an eye toward change.
 - a. That belief has extended the powers of the Federal Government far beyond the plans of the original Framers of the Constitution.
 - b. Liberal constructionists prevailed largely because wars and economic crises called for national action. The consensus of the American public is that government should have the power to solve national problems.
