The Other American Moderns ShiPu

Wang,2017-07-14 In The Other American Moderns ShiPu Wang analyzes the works of four early twentieth century American artists who engaged with the concept of Americanness Frank Matsura Eitar Ishigaki Hideo Noda and Miki Hayakawa In so doing he recasts notions of minority artists contributions to modernism and American culture Wang presents comparative studies of these four artists figurative works that feature Native Americans African Americans and other racial and ethnic minorities including Matsura and Susan Timento Pose at Studio ca 1912 The Bonus March 1932 Scottsboro Boys 1933 and Portrait of a Negro ca 1926 Rather than creating art that reflected Asian aesthetics Matsura Ishigaki Noda and Hayakawa deployed imagery of the Other by the Other as their means of exploring understanding and contesting conditions of diaspora and notions of what it meant to be American in an age of anti immigrant sentiment and legislation Based on a decade long excavation of previously unexamined collections in the United States and Japan The Other American Moderns is more than a rediscovery of forgotten minority artists it reconceives American modernism by illuminating these artists active role in the shaping of a multicultural and cosmopolitan culture This nuanced analysis of their deliberate engagement with the ideological complexities of American identity contributes a new vision to our understanding of non European identity in modernism and American art The National Museum of the American Indian Amy Lonetree,Amanda J. Cobb,2008-11-01 The first American national museum designed and run by indigenous peoples the Smithsonian Institution s National Museum of the American Indian in Washington DC opened in 2004 It represents both the United States as a singular nation and the myriad indigenous nations within its borders Constructed with materials closely connected to Native communities across the continent the museum contains more than 800 000 objects and three permanent galleries and routinely holds workshops and seminar series This first comprehensive look at the National Museum of the American Indian encompasses a variety of perspectives including those of Natives and non Natives museum employees and outside scholars across disciplines such as cultural studies and criticism art history history museum studies anthropology ethnic studies and Native American studies The contributors engage in critical dialogues about key aspects of the museum s origin exhibits significance and the relationship between Native Americans and other related museums America's England Christopher Hanlon,2013-04-04 This book examines the maneuvers through which U S partisans encoded the turmoil of antebellum America in terms of English affiliation Demonstrating that English genealogies geographies and economics encoded the sectional crisis for southern and northern Americans it locates sectionalism in a broader Atlantic context of cultural imagination and literary production Re-framing the Transnational Turn in American Studies Winfried Fluck,Donald E.
