2012-2013 College Admissions Data Sourcebook West Edition , 2012-2013 College Admissions Data Sourcebook Northeast Edition , Resisting Reform Kjersti VanSlyke-Briggs, Elizabeth Bloom, Danielle Boudet, 2015-04-01 This book is a poignant celebration of grassroots empowerment as our contributors people who just a short time ago thought of themselves as ordinary citizens document their call to action when their children and their profession are on the line Practicing teachers and parents who see the direct impact of education reform on young people and are looking for straightforward and accessible information to help them understand what is happening and acquire the tools for resistance will find direction in this text Providing inspiration as well as practical guidance on how to become active in reclaiming education this book covers topics including the corporate takeover of education high stakes testing Common Core Standards teacher preparation grassroots activist responses and much more Data Analytics and Adaptive Learning Patsy D. Moskal, Charles D. Dziuban, Anthony G. Picciano, 2023-08-25 Data Analytics and Adaptive Learning offers new insights into the use of emerging data analysis and adaptive techniques in multiple learning settings In recent years both analytics and adaptive learning have helped educators become more responsive to learners in virtual blended and personalized environments This set of rich illuminating international studies spans quantitative qualitative and mixed methods research in higher education K 12 and adult continuing education contexts By exploring the issues of definition and pedagogical practice that permeate teaching and learning and concluding with recommendations for the future research and practice necessary to support educators at all levels this book will prepare researchers developers and graduate students of instructional technology to produce evidence for the benefits and challenges of data driven learning STEM Education Reform in Urban High Schools Margaret A. Eisenhart, Lois Weis, 2022-08-16 STEM Education Reform in Urban High Schools gives a nuanced view of the obstacles marginalized students face in STEM education and explores how schools can better support STEM learners Reporting the results of a nine year ethnographic study the book chronicles the outcomes of various STEM education reforms in eight public high schools with nonselective admissions policies and high proportions of low income and minoritized students four schools in Denver Colorado and four in Buffalo New York Margaret A Eisenhart and Lois Weis follow the educational experiences of high ability students from each school tracking the students high school to college to career trajectories Through interviews with students educators and parents as well as classroom and campus observations the authors identify patterns in the educational paths of students who go on to great success in STEM occupations and those who do not They discuss common mechanisms that undermine the stated goals of STEM programming opportunity structures that are inequitable erosion of program quality and diversion of resources as well as social and cultural constructs the figured worlds of STEM that exclude many minoritized students with potential for success from the STEM pipeline On a broader scope the book explores how and why STEM education reform efforts fail and succeed With an eye toward greater access to STEM learning the authors show how lessons of past measures can inform future STEM initiatives 2012-2013
