Animating the Antique Sarah Betzer, 2022-01-28 Framed by tensions between figural sculpture experienced in the round and its translation into two-dimensional representations Animating the Antique explores enthralling episodes in a history of artistic and aesthetic encounters Moving across varied locations among them Rome Florence Naples London Dresden and Paris Sarah Betzer explores a history that has yet to be written that of the Janus faced nature of interactions with the antique by which sculptures and beholders alike were caught between the promise of animation and the threat of mortification Examining the traces of affective and transformative sculptural encounters the book takes off from the decades marked by the archaeological art historical and art philosophical developments of the mid eighteenth century and culminantes in fin de si cle anthropological psychological and empathic frameworks It turns on two fundamental and interconnected arguments that an eighteenth century ontology of ancient sculpture continued to inform encounters with the antique well into the nineteenth century and that by attending to the enduring power of this model we can newly appreciate the distinctively modern terms of antique sculpture s allure As Betzer shows these eighteenth century developments had far reaching ramifications for the making and beholding of modern art the articulations of art theory the writing of art history and a significantly queer Nachleben of the antique Bold and wide ranging Animating the Antique sheds light upon the work of myriad artists in addition to that of writers ranging from Goethe and Winckelmann to Hegel Walter Pater and Vernon Lee It will be especially welcomed by scholars and students working in eighteenth and nineteenth century
