Morrison,2019 In the 1880s and 1890s Walter Besant was one of Britain s most lionized living novelists Today he is comparatively unknown Bringing together literary critics and book historians as well as social and cultural historians this volume provides a major reassessment of Besant All Sorts and Conditions of Men Walter Besant,1900 The New Nineteenth Century Barbara Leah Harman,Susan Meyer,2012-11-12 This book includes essays on writers from the 1840s to the 1890s well known writers such as Anne Bronte Wilkie Collins and Bram Stoker lesser known writers such as Geraldine Jewsbury Charles Reade Margaret Oliphant George Moore Sarah Grand and Mary Ward The contributors explore important thematic concerns the relation between private and public realms gender and social class sexuality and the marketplace and male and female cultural identity The New Woman Student in Fact and Fiction, 1880-1914 Laura Rotunno,2025-09-30 This book explores the representation of the first generations of women who studied at Oxford and Cambridge in popular fiction of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century Familiarly termed Girton Girls these women were depicted as intent on overthrowing the ancient universities and by extension English society This study argues that the powerful and influential vision of the Oxbridge woman was both exploited and expanded in novels of the time It shows that this fiction offers not only an informed critical view of this simultaneously anxiety ridden and intermittently hopeful period of English life between 1880 and 1914 but also reveals popular fiction s underexplored contribution to the move towards Modernist themes and literary techniques The book posits that the Girton Girl was not simply a bit part in the sub genre of the university novel or even within the confines of the New Woman fiction but rather her character was rich and malleable enough to animate a variety of plots that respond to readers burgeoning demands for the women who would inhabit their fiction Harper's New Monthly Magazine ,1883 Belgravia ,1889
