Alice Et Martin:

Light Readings Chris Darke, 2000 Chris Darke assesses whether the last decade of the 20th century was one in which cinema as a medium and collective experience became part of the converging field of multi media and whether we need to consider new possibilities for the moving image André Téchiné William Marshall, 2007-07-15 This is the first full length monograph in English about one of France's most important contemporary filmmakers perhaps best known in the English speaking world for his award winning Les Roseaux sauvages Wild Reeds of 1994 This study locates André Téchiné within historical and cultural contexts that include the Algerian War May 1968 and contemporary globalization and the influence of Roland Barthes Bertolt Brecht Ingmar Bergman William Faulkner and the cinematic French New Wave The originality of Téchiné's sixteen feature films lies in his subtle exploration of sexuality and national identity as he challenges expectations in his depictions of gay relations the North African dimensions of contemporary French culture and the center periphery relationship between Paris and especially his native southwest
