Answering Questions About A Story:

The Process of Question Answering Wendy G. Lehnert, 2022-11-01 Originally published in 1978 The Process of Question Answering examines a phenomenon that relies on many realms of human cognition language comprehension memory retrieval and language generation Problems in computational question answering assume a new perspective when question answering is viewed as a problem in natural language processing A theory of human question answering must necessarily entail a theory of human memory organization and theories of the cognitive processes that access and manipulate information in memory This book describes question answering as a particular task in information processing The theoretical models described here have been built on a formulation of general theories in natural language processing theories about language that were developed without the specific problem of question answering in mind By requiring programmers to be concerned with the precise form of information in memory and the precise operations manipulating that information they can uncover significant problems that would otherwise be overlooked An early insight into artificial intelligence today this reissue can be enjoyed in its historical context

Glover,Royce R. Ronning,2013-11-11 This volume represents a beginning effort to compile a history of educational psychology The project began innocuously enough several years ago when we decided to add mon material about the history of educational psychology to the undergraduate course we were teaching What seemed like a simple task became very complex as we searched in vain for a volume dealing with the topic We ended up drawing on various histories of psychology that devoted anywhere from a few paragraphs to several pages to the topic and on a very few articles addressing the issue We were startled frankly by the apparent lack of interest in the history of our field and decided to attempt to compile a history ourselves As is the case with any edited volume the contributing authors deserve credit for its positive features They uniformly made every effort asked of them and taught us much about educational psychology Any errors or omissions are our responsibility alone Big Questions and Great Answers in Entrepreneurship Research Alain Fayolle,Sandrine Le Pontois,R.
