

Section 1

Reading

1 Read the article about the changing face of television. Five sentences have been removed from the article. Choose from the sentences A-F the one which fits each gap (1-5). There is one extra sentence which you do not need to use.

- A All we had was the radio, which was enough, really.
B They didn't think I had them in my day.
C Watching TV today can be very educational.
D They totally disagreed with me.

- E Why don't we change TV and have fewer channels?
F Added to that, satellite TV has completely changed our viewing habits.

The change in television – good or bad?

When I was a kid, TV was different because there were so few channels. In Britain in the 1970s, we had just three channels and they went off before midnight, not coming on again until after nine in the morning.

I can imagine all you young people out there, quite unable to imagine life then. Just think – we didn't wake up to breakfast TV! (1) It had songs, a weather report and news. What else is necessary? Which brings me to my point: Has the modernisation of TV really been good for us?

I would say 'No!' and do you know why? Well, as a child I used to go to school every morning and chat excitedly with my friends about the funny sitcom or some other programme we'd watched the night before. Most of us had seen the same programme so it was a shared experience, something we could all talk about.

That doesn't happen so much now. First of all, there are so many different channels to choose from that anytime you turn over, you can find something different to watch. (2) For example, if you want, you can watch sport or cartoons non-stop for 24 hours a day. All this means that when a child arrives at school nowadays, the chances of him or her having seen the same programme as another child are small. This results in people having less in common to talk about. Is that a positive thing? I doubt it.

'Yes, but ...' I hear you say. ' (3) After all, this increase in broadcasting time gives us more opportunities to watch documentaries or catch up on the news, doesn't it? But I wonder ... Yes, we do get more news from all over the world, but do we actually know more about other places and other cultures? How much Chinese TV do you get?

Anyway, I know my ideas are old-fashioned, so I spoke to my daughter and her friends and asked their opinions. (4) They were very enthusiastic about modern media and particularly about TV. A boy called Zack explained to me that, despite the many channels, young people do normally watch the same things. They all have their favourite reality TV programme, which is something they talk about at school together. They also told me that they were lucky because there were some really good music channels. (5) (I have to admit that I think they're probably right about that.)

Well who knows? Maybe I need to rethink my ideas. What do you say?

Listening

CD Track 6

2 You will hear people talking in five different situations. For questions 1-5, choose the best answer (A, B or C).

1 You hear a woman talking. What did she watch on TV last night?

- A a soap opera
B a game show
C a chat show

2 You hear a man talking. What is his job?

- A reporter
B police officer
C cameraman

3 You hear a woman being interviewed on radio. What does she say?

- A She doesn't know why she is so famous.
B She has had many different jobs in the media.
C She has been front-page news several times.

4 You hear a discussion on the radio. What is the man's opinion of TV?

- A TV causes damage to our eyes.
B Being a couch potato is healthy.

C It's better not to watch so much TV.

5 You hear a TV presenter talking about her job. How does she feel about TV presenting?

- A It can be too demanding at times.
B You need to be good-looking to do it.
C It can be more than just introducing people.

Harcourt Brace Spelling Thorsten Carlson, 1999 Pupil book emphasizes communication by applying spelling skills to writing instruction Strategies in Global Industries Allen Morrison, 1990-06-12 This insightful monograph explodes some of the myths introduced by well known business consultants and by strategic planning academics and replaces myth with comprehensive model of business strategies that is applicable to the contemporary marketplace where international trade and competitiveness are issues of critical concern Today s American businesses are challenged both at home and abroad in market battles that frequently threaten the survival of entire domestic industries In Strategies in Global Industries Morrison develops a comprehensive model of business strategies that is a prescription for increasing the competitiveness of U S companies He argues that many U S firms misperceive global industry opportunities and as a consequence pursue strategies that may suboptimize performance Indeed Morrison found little evidence that U S businesses are actually competitive on a global scale Results of his study of 115 global U S companies that have annual average sales of over 900 million form the basis for his groundbreaking conclusions that will have wide applicability to global concerns The study s conceptual foundation consists of an integration of the contingency perspective of strategic management and the industry organization perspective of the business s context These two perspectives are vital to an in depth understanding of the relationship between business strategy and performance in global industries Four appendixes detail the survey instrument and SIC Code related data Twenty six figures graphically display information relating to strategy classification research methodology global industries key business unit characteristics strategy types and dimensions in global industries and more An important contribution to the vital study of U S competitiveness on a global scale the volume offers many fact based new insights into ways to foster and improve the competitiveness of U S companies Instructors Resource Guide
