A prominent issue remains the changing of street and place names including the Pretoria Tshwane and Louis Trichardt Makhado sagas. Language in education remains a thorny issue as medium of instruction at school and tertiary level and the proposal that passing an African language should be a requirement in order to obtain a tertiary degree in South Africa. In terms of language legislation the draft version of the National Language Act was proposed. These two boys from similar backgrounds grew into young men before they met and formed a friendship that would last a lifetime. They became almost more than brothers. Yet they are complete opposites. Clarke is characterized by his dignified reserve and meticulous order. Matthews by his forthrightness and bohemian disorder. Over a period of more than forty years both became well known in their respective disciplines. Clarke became a poet short story writer and primarily a painter. Matthews started out writing short stories and novels before establishing himself as the dispatcher of raging Black Consciousness poetry. This book is a tribute to two fiercely independent artists. It is liberally illustrated with the work of both artists in b/w and color photographs. African Books in Print, 1993 Black Composers of Southern Africa Yvonne Huskisson, 1992 This publication contains details of a new up and coming generation of composers.
