Innovations and Challenges in Digital Literacies Rodney H. Jones,2025-09-29 Innovations and Challenges in Digital Literacies questions whether the current theoretical frameworks and pedagogical practices around digital literacies are sufficient to confront the technological social and political crises around digital media that we are experiencing today

Drawing on extensive research in digital literacies discourse analysis and sociotechnical systems Jones reimagines digital literacies not simply as skills for making meaning and navigating information but as a more holistic project of figuring out how to fix what is broken about the internet and our broader societies The book focuses on seven key sites of repair action attention affect affinity visibility truth and humanity each site offering insights into how agency emotions relationships knowledge and intelligence emerge through our entanglements with digital technologies The text aims to provoke debate about how we define digital literacies in an age of political polarisation and rapid technological change It provides powerful tools for teaching learning and living more ethically with digital media With this book Jones invites readers to see themselves not just as users of digital technology but as fixers of broken systems and caretakers of our increasingly fragile world This approach provides a framework for educators students and researchers to collaboratively develop practical strategies to challenge the logics of technological and social systems cultivating new literacies for an age of online misinformation algorithmic governance and generative AI Open Access for this book was funded by the University of Reading UK The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license De Gruyter Handbook of Digital Cultures Grant Bollmer,Katherine Guinness,Yiğit Soncul,2025-09-22 As Digital Cultures becomes the dominant term used by many across a variety of intellectual fields to describe the social aesthetic and political impact of digital media it is necessary to provide a reference volume that specifies and defines the bounds of scholarly debates and curricular outlines for an otherwise amorphous interdisciplinary space This handbook provides a comprehensive reference for the varied methodologies historical frames and theoretical perspectives essential for the study of Digital Cultures today In outlining these foundations it serves as a practical guide for educators and students into the broad range of perspectives grouped together for the critical historical and social scientific study of digital media It also looks into the future and outlines an agenda for future research by examining not only the origins of the concept of Digital Culture but emerging topics and themes still in development such as the relation between digital technology and climate change artificial intelligence and knowledge sensation and aesthetics and the rise of new infrastructures reinventing not only the built environment but the boundaries of nations and sovereignty

Advances in Design and Digital Communication V Nuno Martins,Daniel Brandão,2024-12-23 This book reports on research findings and practical lessons featuring advances in the areas of digital and interaction design graphic design and branding design education society and communication in design practice and related ones Gathering the proceedings of the 8th International Conference on Digital Design and Communication Digicom 2024 held on November 7 9 2024 as a hybrid event in from Barcelos Portugal this book continues the tradition of the previous ones reporting on new design strategies to foster digital communication within and between the society institutions and brands By highlighting innovative ideas and reporting on multidisciplinary projects it offers a source of inspiration for designers of all kinds including graphic and web designers UI UX and social media designers and to researchers advertisers artists and brand and corporate communication managers alike Combatting Misinformation and Global Nation's False Narratives Through Education Ilik, Goran, Karadjoski, Mladen, Ilijevski, Ice, Nenovski, Blagoj, 2025-06-20 In an era where the rapid spread of information is unprecedented misinformation and false narratives have emerged as pervasive threats to the integrity of public discourse and the functioning of democratic societies These challenges are not confined to a single region or culture but are global in nature often fueled by technological advancements that have transformed how information is disseminated and consumed From deepfakes and manipulated content to orchestrated disinformation campaigns the landscape of information has become a battleground where truth and falsehood vie for supremacy Combatting Misinformation and Global Nation's False Narratives Through Education explores the crucial role of education plays in addressing misinformation in the global information landscape This book delves into the multifaceted ways in which educational strategies can be employed to develop critical thinking skills media literacy and informed citizenry capable of discerning truth from falsehood Covering topics such as artificial intelligence false narratives and social media this book is an excellent resource for educators policymakers researchers practitioners researchers academicians and more Digital Media and the Daily Lives of China's Senior Citizens Chen Guo, 2025-08-12 Guo provides a comprehensive outlook of how digital media is transforming the daily lives of senior citizens in China The book explores the important role digital media play in senior citizens daily lives and the disparities of third agers digital well being It applies the concepts of digital capital and individualisation to China and uses a combination of qualitative research including interviews with seniors and focus groups with recent data on media use aging and demography Its fieldwork with seniors conducted in a second tier city of China provides insights on how the process of digitalisation has transformed seniors daily lives A valuable book for scholars and researchers in sociology digital media active aging population gerontology and China studies
