What can parents and caregivers provide all children so that they are prepared for reading instruction by the time that they get to school? What concepts about language and literacy should be included in beginning reading instruction? How can we prevent reading difficulties starting with infants and into the early grades? What to ask school boards, principals, elected officials, and other policy makers who make decisions regarding early reading instruction? You'll find out how to help youngsters build word recognition, avoid comprehension problems, and more, with checklists of specific accomplishments to be expected at different ages for very young children, for kindergarten students, and for first, second, and third grade students.
