Jigme Phuntsok, 2015-04-28 Personal and heartfelt teachings on the Buddhist path by one of the most influential Tibetan lamas of the twentieth century compiled and edited by an acclaimed Tibetan scholar and leader of a key center of Buddhist learning What is true happiness What is the cause of our suffering and dissatisfaction And how can we live with the kindness and clarity of the Buddha in our own lives This compact collection of teachings from Jigme Phuntsok Rinpoche illuminates these most fundamental questions about the Buddhist path and provides essential guidance to help you along the way Oriented to both beginners to Buddhism and longtime practitioners alike these teachings offer precious insights on the Buddhadharma to return to again and again for inspiration encouragement and practical advice Always On Naomi S.

Baron, 2010-03-03 Baron reveals that online and mobile technologies including instant messaging cell phones multitasking Facebook blogs and wikis are profoundly influencing how we read and write speak and listen but not in the ways we might suppose She reveals that email IM and text messaging have had surprisingly little impact on student writing More troubling is the myriad ways in which we block incoming IMs and screen incoming calls Our ability to decide who to talk to she argues is likely to have a lasting influence on the way we communicate with one another Also what kind of people will we become if the relationships we form must increasingly compete for our attention with digital media Always Know Melinda

Estabrooks, 2021-02-01 Listening Learning Leaning In Amplifying Authenticity Courage Inclusion Faith This is what See Hear Love is all about It's not just a TV show or a podcast but a community of brave women and men who long for justice peace inclusion hope and love Their voices matter Their stories and lives are inspiring wise and life changing This collection of stories is made up of more than just words It's made up of experiences and learnings that have been held open handed to God the master storyteller of life and transformation In this collection Host Melinda Estabrooks and fifty guests and friends share encouraging and practical ways to Know that you are loved and valued by God Live an open handed life Overcome shame and find hope Choose joy and freedom Be brave Love your neighbour Lead well And as you read these stories always know that you are seen heard and deeply loved by God On Translation Di JIN, Eugene Albert NIDA, 2006-03-01

Following the theoretical framework Nida had developed over decades of work on translation and semiotics the two authors offer an easily comprehensible analysis of the complex problems involved in translation After a critical review of the historical development of translation theory in the light of modern information theory they elucidate the most fundamental principles of translation in accordance with the concept of dynamic equivalence The treatment is closely related to actual translation practice and the principles elucidated are applicable to all types of translation though most of the examples analyzed are taken from translations between Chinese and English This new and expanded edition has two main parts Part I is the complete text of the original work as published in the early 1980s Part II consists of six of Professor Jin's more recent essays which provide further insights into the principle of equivalent effect and its applications in literary translation Particular attention is paid to practical procedures and the extremely complex relationship between creative translation and real fidelity Published by City University of Hong Kong Press Always Hungry, Never Greedy Miriam Kahn,1993-12-30

The Wamira people of Papua New Guinea display what outsiders would describe as an obsession with food Who owns how many pigs how much taro grows in whose garden and who contributes what food at a feast are all questions uppermost in their thoughts Wamirans account for this preoccupation by saying that they suffer from perpetual famine They explain this by means of an elaborate and colorful myth about Tamodukorokoro a monster who would have brought them abundant food but whom in typical Wamiran style of fearing what they desire they chased away In this carefully crafted and beautifully evocative book Kahn who lived with the Wamira people for two and a half years argues that Wamirans famine has in fact little to do with the belly For Wamirans concepts of food and hunger are cultural constructs By means of food they objectify emotions balance relations between men and women communicate rivalries among men and ultimately control the ambivalent desires that they fear would otherwise control them Effectively combining analyses of myths and symbols with analytical accounts of subsistence and ritual behavior Kahn writes with a degree of nuance that takes the reader beyond academic analyses into the experience of the ethnographer and the daily lives of the people with whom she resided

Always the Mountains David Rothenberg,2007-04-01 David Rothenberg is one of our most eloquent observers of the interplay between nature culture and technology These nineteen pieces exemplify what has been called Rothenberg s amiable mix of interests styles and approaches In settings that range from wildest Norway to his own front porch in upstate New York Rothenberg discusses the Hudson River School of painters the hazy provenance of Chief Seattle s famous speech ecoterrorism suburbia the World Wide Web and much more He asks if we can save a place less obtrusively than by turning it into a park He muses on the plight of a pacifist beset by a swarm of mosquitoes He ascends Mt Ventoux with Petrarch and Mt Katahdin with Thoreau In Always the Mountains Rothenberg dares us to enjoy the fundamental uncertainty that grounds human existence to wean ourselves from the habit of simple answers and embrace the world s vastness Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Lacan (But Were Afraid to Ask Hitchcock) Slavoj Zizek,2020-05-05 The contributors bring to bear an unrivaled enthusiasm and theoretical sweep on the entire Hitchcock oeuvre analyzing movies such as Rear Window and Psycho Starting from the premise that everything has meaning the authors examine the films ostensible narrative content and formal procedures to discover a rich proliferation of hidden ideological and psychic mechanisms But Hitchcock is also a bait to lure the reader into a serious Marxist and Lacanian exploration of the construction of meaning An extraordinary landmark in Hitchcock studies this new edition features a brand new essay by philosopher Slavoj Zizek presenter of Sophie Fiennes s three part documentary The Pervert s Guide to Cinema Always Never Jordi Lafebre,2022-09-27 After forty years of being madly in love Ana and Zeno are finally retiring and giving their romance a chance to bloom while they both still have time left A unique but relatable love story told in reverse with each chapter stepping further back through the decades of touch and go courting showing both the heartbreaking moments that kept the two lovers apart and the beautiful moments that kept their flame alive This isn't a tale of missed connections and regret but rather a story celebrating the complexities of family responsibility destiny and how love persists across time with complete disregard for all of that Ana is a brilliant headstrong and compassionate mayor of a small city with a lovely husband daughter and granddaughter Yet there has been a lingering piece of her life missing a thread of happiness she hasn't been able to pull on for most of her life Zeno a lifelong bachelor bookstore owner intrepid traveler and theoretical physicist determined to figure out how to turn back time Handsome clever and kind he is often questioned about his failure to settle down Over the years they have woven together an impossible and inexhaustible love Their paths constantly intertwining from a chance meeting on a boat to clumsily bumping into each other in the city they share Eventually keeping in touch by letters and late night phone calls across the world A luxuriously illustrated love story full of heart comedy and universal truths published in English for the first time Written and illustrated by Spanish cartoonist Jordi Lefebvre co creator and artist of the graphic novel series Glorious Summers as well as La Mondaine and Lydia A 2023 Eisner and Harvey Award Nominated Graphic Novel Hope. Always. Kris Frank, 2020-06-10 In Hope Always Kris Frank a popular Catholic speaker and youth minister offers his down to earth and personal reflections on hope and how this crucial but often misunderstood virtue can change our perspective on life's difficulties Sharing stories from his own life along with Scripture passages and theological commentary solidly grounded in Church teaching Frank teaches by example demonstrating how the practice of hope can help any person in any state of life and in any situation

Everything that Linguists Have Always Wanted to Know about Logic . . . But Were Ashamed to Ask James D.

McCawley, 1993-11 McCawley supplements his earlier book which covers such topics as presuppositional logic the logic of mass terms and nonstandard quantifiers and fuzzy logic with new material on the logic of conditional sentences linguistic applications of type theory Anil Gupta's work on principles of identity and the generalized quantifier approach to the logical properties of determiners Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Lacan Slavoj Žižek, 1992 A modernist work of art is by definition incomprehensible it functions as a shock as the irruption of a trauma which undermines the complacency of our daily routine and resists being integrated What postmodernism does however is the very opposite it objects par excellence are products with mass appeal the aim of the postmodernist treatment is to estrange their initial homeliness you think what you see is a simple melodrama your granny would have no difficulty in following Yet without taking into account the difference between symptom and sinthom the structure of the Borromean knot the fact that Woman is one of the Names of the Father you've totally missed the point if there is an author whose name epitomises this interpretive pleasure of estranging the most banal content it is Alfred Hitchcock and useless to deny it this book partakes unrestrainedly in this madness Hitchcock is placed on the analyst's couch in this extraordinary volume of case studies as its contributors bring to bear an unrivalled enthusiasm and theoretical sweep on the entire Hitchcock oeuvre from Rear Window to Psycho as an exemplar of postmodern defamiliarization Starting from the premise that everything has meaning the films ostensible narrative content and formal procedures are analysed to reveal a rich proliferation of ideological and psychical mechanisms at work But Hitchcock is here to lure the reader into serious Marxist and Lacanian considerations on the construction of meaning Timely provocative and original this is sure to become a landmark of Hitchcock studies Contributors Frederic Jameson Pascal Bonitzer Miran Bozovic Michel Chion Mladen Dolar Stojan Pellko Renata Salecl Alenka Zupancic and Slavoj Zizek
