development in Proust's portrayal of his narrator major protagonist and narratee from his early abandoned novel Jean Santeuil to A la recherche. It adopts a thematic approach and examines many of the published drafts from Proust's Cahiers as well as the implications of some of the expansions he made to A la recherche in the later years of writing his novel. Focusing on the author's change from third person narration in Jean Santeuil to first person narration in A la recherche, the study gives new insights into Proust's compositional methods and sheds light on how his attitude toward his narrator protagonist and narratee evolved throughout his career as a writer.
