

A man in a tuxedo and a woman in a light-colored dress are shown in profile, looking at each other in a dimly lit room. The man is on the left, wearing a black tuxedo with a white shirt and a black bow tie. The woman is on the right, wearing a light-colored, possibly white, dress. They are both looking towards the center of the frame. The background is dark and indistinct, suggesting an indoor setting with some architectural details like wood paneling.

British Women Mystery Writers Mary Hadley, 2015-10-02 Many aspects of British detective fiction are intriguingly different from the American detective fiction. And confusingly many of the British women detectives who have made it to American television are far from typical of the latest women detectives. This work is a study of British detective fiction with female protagonists written by women. Authors included are P D James, Jennie Melville, Liza Cody, Val McDermid, Joan Smith and Susan Moody. Special attention is paid to the evolution of the British female sleuth from the 1960s to the year 2000, particularly the 1980s and how this shaped and altered detective fiction. Also discussed is the effect of the British judicial system and gun laws on detective fiction and real life, the types of crimes women detectives usually investigate, why certain directions have been taken and which ones may be taken in the future, issues being raised by the authors and new women authors of detective fiction with female protagonists.
