Sport Facility Operations Management Stacey A. Hall, Simon Shibli, Eric Schwarz, 2010-05-14 This is the first book to take a truly global look at facilities operations management in the sport industry Sports facilities management is in the national news with reports from the BBC that three 2012 Olympic venues in London are being evaluated by accountants to see whether they will deliver value for money The current estimate of government spending on the games is 9.3 billion There is also an ongoing debate about the fate of the 80,000 seat stadium that is being constructed for the games at a cost of 500 million Sport facilities of all shapes and sizes are an ingrained part of global sport management culture As such it is inevitable that students who enter into the field of sport management will interact with the management and operations of a sport facility at some point during their career This textbook provides the theoretical foundation for sport facility operations management and is supplemented both in the text and in the companion site containing schematics planning documents sample forms and sample ownership management structures In addition each author will infuse research and experiences from sport facilities around the world North America Europe Middle East Asia Australia and New Zealand to ensure that a global perspective is at the core of this book This book is published with the sport management lecturer and student in mind

The Training Evaluation Process David J. Basarab Sr., Darrell K. Root, 2012-12-06 This book details a unique training evaluation approach developed by David J Basarab Sr currently the Manager of Evaluation at Motorola University This approach was developed in part based on information from his graduate coursework with Dr Darrell K Root professor of program evaluation and educational administration at the University of Dayton It enabled Motorola to evaluate their corporate training programs to determine whether money spent on training was an investment or an expense This evaluation approach is also significant in determining either the effectiveness of or the opportunities to improve corporate training programs In this text The Training Evaluation Process David Basarab and Darrell Root provide commercial industry training with a step by step approach to use when evaluating training programs thus allowing training to be viewed as an investment rather than an expense This text focuses on assessing training programs so that they may be improved This approach provides a successful procedure to use when evaluating training programs Included in the text is a comprehensive explanation of the evaluation model developed by D L Kirkpatrick Kirkpatrick D L November 1959 in which he described four levels of evaluating training programs Level 1 Reaction Evaluate to learn participants perception to the training program Level 2 Learning Evaluate to determine whether participants have learned
