Williams,2000-06 The Figure of the Animal in Modern and Contemporary Poetry Michael Malay,2018-06-05 This book argues that there are deep connections between poetic thinking and the sensitive recognition of creaturely others It explores this proposition in relation to four poets Marianne Moore Elizabeth Bishop Ted Hughes and Les Murray Through a series of close readings and by paying close attention to issues of sound rhythm simile metaphor and image it explores how poetry cultivates a special openness towards animal others The thinking behind this book is inspired by J M Coetzee s The Lives of Animals In particular it takes up that book s suggestion that poetry invites us to relate to animals in an open ended and sympathetic manner Poets according to Elizabeth Costello the book s protagonist return the living electric being to language and doing so compel us to open our hearts towards animals and the claims they make upon us There are special affinities for her between the music of poetry and the recognition of others But what might it mean to say that poets to return life to language And why might this have any bearing on our relationship with animals Beyond offering many suggestive starting points Elizabeth Costello says very little about the nature of poetry s special relationship with the animal one aim of this study then is to ask of what this relationship consists not least by examining the various ways poets have bodied forth animals in language Environment Poetry Andrew Frolish,2012-10-19 This is a great new resource that provides a selection of poems lesson plans and worksheets designed to be used by Key Stage 2 teachers in literacy lessons The poems and lesson plans are based on a variety of environmental issues such as recycling dramatic weather changes and environmental disasters like oil spills The book contains 24 lessons with cross curricular links to support learning in other subject areas Their interest coincides with the need for schools to raise awareness of environmental concerns and to become more sustainable organisations Reading and Writing Wendy Wren,1998 This photocopiable book provides a resource for the Literacy Hour the National Curriculum for English and the Scottish Guidelines for English Language 5 14 Covering the key requirements for text level work comprehension and composition it provides sections of structured lesson plans on the main genres narrative non fiction poetry and plays 90 linked copymasters which include extracts from books and poems continuing and end of section assessments and National Literacy Strategy and Scotland 5 14 planners

Poetry and Animals Onno Oerlemans,2018-03-06 Why do poets write about animals What can poetry do for animals and what can animals do for poetry In some cases poetry inscribes meaning on animals turning them into symbols or caricatures and bringing them into the confines of human culture It also reveals and revels in the complexity of animals Poetry through its great variety and its inherently experimental nature has embraced the multifaceted nature of animals to cross blur and reimagine the boundaries between human and animal In Poetry and Animals Onno Oerlemans explores a broad range of English language poetry about animals from the Middle Ages to the contemporary world He presents a taxonomy of kinds of animal poems breaking down the categories and binary oppositions at the root of human thinking about animals The book considers several different types of poetry allegorical poems poems about the animal broadly conceived poems about species of animal poems about individual animals or the animal as individual and poems about hybrids and hybridity Through careful readings of dozens of poems that reveal generous and often sympathetic approaches to recognizing and valuing animals difference and similarity Oerlemans demonstrates how the forms and modes of poetry can sensitize us to the moral standing of animals and give us new ways to think through the problems of the human animal divide
