Grampy's War Colin Simmons,2019-06-22 As with most people of his generation Fred Britt didn t really mention the war unless he was with fellow veterans But when Colin Simmons found 20 hours of tapes that Fred had recorded of his experiences after he died I thought it would be nice if people could hear and read about his experiences the story of the common man On the tapes my Grandad asks if one of his grandchildren could do something with them I had no idea what he did during the war By doing this I am ensuring that his name and what he went through has not been forgotten Fred served with them through his training in the UK over to Africa at the end of El Alamein the Invasion of Pantelleria Sicily Italy including the battles of the River Sangro and Anzio When Victory over Europe was declared he was then dispatched to Africa to begin training for the invasion of Japan

When that was averted he was then sent to the Middle East and was involved in the Palestine War He returned to his family in Portsmouth in 1946 East Asia and Pacific Area Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center,1953 The Lansing Papers, 1914-1920 United States. Department of State,1940
