comprehensive clearly laid out and interesting to read Books Ireland

Pre-census Sources for Irish Demography Brian Gurrin, 2002 This book focuses on how local historians can source and use the various censuses and universal taxation returns and a variety of other sources of the pre census period to build up a population picture of a community or a local area To set the scene a brief history of enumeration in Ireland is outlined and the key population sources are introduced The earliest sources considered in detail are the 1660 poll tax return commonly known as Pender s Census and the hearth tax rolls All known available hearth tax rolls are listed in an appendix The various religious censuses of the eighteenth century are also examined and particular attention is paid to the most well known of these the census of 1766 The use of non census sources such as church and estate record is also considered It is shown that these non census sources can provide much useful information that would not be apparent from census substitutes Problems with working with these sources are outlined and examples of population studies both Irish and non Irish are given Although this book is written with the local historian in mind it will also be of much interest to genealogists and family historians

Family Tree Detective Colin D. Rogers, 1997 Welcomed worldwide on its first publication this practical and lively guide for the amateur genealogist has now been fully revised and updated The new material includes a section on medieval genealogy which targets the increasing numbers of family historians who have reached back as far as the sixteenth century and wish to go further Heraldry is introduced for the first time There is detail on the location and genealogical content of military records and the records of Poor Law Unions and their workhouses Details are also included of the latest changes to the location and cost of civil registration sources A problem solving manual rather than a simple how to guide The family tree detective explains what to do when the usual methods fail and provides invaluable assistance for those without access to London s vast resources of genealogical information

The 452nd Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion Samuel de Korte, 2025-05-28 The 452nd Antiaircraft Artillery Battalion staffed by Black soldiers protected vital installations and shot down 68 enemy aircraft during WWII During the Second World War the airplane became a true menace Flying faster higher and capable of carrying a heavier payload air forces of the warring nations formed a formidable threat to the forces on the ground To counter this special anti aircraft artillery battalions were created by the US Army Several of these battalions including the 452nd Antiaircraft Artillery AAA Battalion were staffed by Black American soldiers The 452nd AAA deployed in England in November 1943 and went ashore in Normandy France in June 1944 Assigned to XII Corps part of General Patton s Third Army the 452nd AAA was a valuable asset of the US Army Armed with the deadly 40mm Bofors gun and the 50 cal M45 Quadmount these Black soldiers protected bridges field artillery battalions and other vital installations during the Second World War Some of the white soldiers from the field artillery battalions the 452nd AAA was protecting doubted their abilities but quickly came to appreciate the accuracy and coolness under fire of the Black soldiers Credited with shooting down almost 68 hostile aircraft one of the highest among AAA units in Europe the 452nd AAA has rightfully earned its place in the history of the US Armed Forces during the Second World War Although the battalion s motto was We Guard the Skyways it would perhaps be more appropriate to call them Airplane Destroyers Almost 80 years after the war this outstanding unit s history is finally made public
