Adornment and the Body in the Hebrew Bible is the first monograph to treat dress and adornment in biblical literature in the English language It moves beyond a description of these aspects of ancient life to encompass notions of interpersonal relationships and personhood that underpin practices of dress and adornment Laura Quick explores the ramifications of body adornment in the biblical world informed by a methodologically plural approach incorporating material culture alongside philology textual exegesis comparative evidence and sociological models Drawing upon and synthesizing insights from material culture and texts from across the eastern Mediterranean the volume reconstructs the social meanings attached to the dressed body in biblical texts It shows how body adornment can deepen understanding of attitudes towards the self in the ancient world In Quick's reconstruction of ancient performances of the self the body serves as the observed centre in which complex ideologies of identity gender sexuality ethnicity and social status are articulated The adornment of the body is thus an effective means of non verbal communication but one which at the same time is controlled by and dictated through normative social values Exploring dress adornment and the body can therefore open up hitherto unexplored perspectives on these social values in the ancient world an essential missing piece in understanding the social and cultural world which shaped the Hebrew Bible Billboard ,1997-02-22 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends

In This Place Marianne Race CSJ,Laurie Brink OP,2008-05-01 The landscape photographed and the reflections on the sites of the Sunday Gospels paint a geography little changed since the time of Jesus and his followers To see the Judean Wilderness or the River Jordan or the hills of Jerusalem is to see the topography the land features that existed two thousand years ago And in seeing them we are reminded that this is what Jesus saw The dust and heat are the reality of his day and time as much as they are ours To encounter that land if only through word and image is to touch the world of Jesus
