Tony Proctor

2008 Ford 64 Problems:

The Finite Field Distance Problem David J. Covert, 2021-06-21 Erdős asked how many distinct distances must there be in a set of n points in the plane Falconer asked a continuous analogue essentially asking what is the minimal Hausdorff dimension required of a compact set in order to guarantee that the set of distinct distances has positive Lebesgue measure in $\mathbb{R}$ The finite field distance problem poses the analogous question in a vector space over a finite field The problem is relatively new but remains tantalizingly out of reach This book provides an accessible exciting summary of known results The tools used range over combinatorics number theory analysis and algebra The intended audience is graduate students and advanced undergraduates interested in investigating the unknown dimensions of the problem Results available until now only in the research literature are clearly explained and beautifully motivated A concluding chapter opens up connections to related topics in combinatorics and number theory incidence theory sum product phenomena Waring's problem and the Keakey conjecture

Farm Fresh Broadband Christopher Ali,2021-09-21 An analysis of the failure of U S broadband policy to solve the rural urban digital divide with a proposal for a new national rural broadband plan As much of daily life migrates online broadband high speed internet connectivity has become a necessity The widespread lack of broadband in rural America has created a stark urban rural digital divide In Farm Fresh Broadband Christopher Ali analyzes the promise and the failure of national rural broadband policy in the United States and proposes a new national broadband plan He examines how broadband policies are enacted and implemented explores business models for broadband providers surveys the technologies of rural broadband and offers case studies of broadband use in the rural Midwest Ali argues that rural broadband policy is both broken and incomplete broken because it lacks coordinated federal leadership and incomplete because it fails to recognize the important roles of communities cooperatives and local providers in broadband access For example existing policies favor large telecommunication companies crowding out smaller nimbler providers Lack of competition drives prices up rural broadband can cost 37 percent more than urban broadband The federal government subsidizes rural broadband by approximately 6 billion Where does the money go Ali proposes democratizing policy architecture for rural broadband modeling it after the wiring of rural America for electricity and telephony Subsidies should be equalized not just going to big companies The result would be a multistakeholder system guided by thoughtful public policy and funded by public and private support

A History of Catholic Moral Theology in the Twentieth Century James F. Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical Fritz Tillmann asks whether it s adequately biblical and Gerard Gilleman whether it s adequately spiritual Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism in Latin America liberation theology in North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturatism At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally
