An Unexpected Love (The Broadmoor Legacy Book #2) Tracie Peterson, Judith Miller, 2008-09-01 During a trip to England Sophie Broadmoor falls head over heels for Wesley Hedrick a wealthy widower who promises her the world But Sophie soon learns that Wesley's promises are nothing but words and finds herself in a very compromising situation Why does it have to be Paul Medford the stringent young minister who works with her father who shows up during her worst moment Paul is full of promises too and it's clear that he has feelings for Sophie But after all she's been through can she trust him

The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1889 Themes of Work and Love in Adulthood Neil J. Smelser, Erik Homburger Erikson, 1980 Revised papers from a conference under the auspices of the Western Center of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences which was held May 8-9 1977 at the Center for Advanced Study of the Behavioral Sciences in Palo Alto California Alexander the Great in the Middle Ages Markus Stock, 2016-02-24 In the Middle Ages the life story of Alexander the Great was a well traveled tale Known in numerous versions many of them derived from the ancient Greek Alexander Romance it was told and re-told throughout Europe India the Middle East and Central Asia The essays collected in Alexander the Great in the Middle Ages examine these remarkable legends not merely as stories of conquest and discovery but also as representations of otherness migration translation cosmopolitanism and diaspora Alongside studies of the Alexander legend in medieval and early modern Latin English French German and Persian Alexander the Great in the Middle Ages breaks new ground by examining rarer topics such as Hebrew Alexander romances Coptic and Arabic Alexander materials and early modern Malay versions of the Alexander legend Brought together in this wide-ranging collection these essays testify to the enduring fascination and transcultural adaptability of medieval stories about the extraordinary Macedonian leader

Romantic Prose Fiction Gerald Ernest Paul Gillespie, Manfred Engel, Bernard Dieterle, 2008 In this volume a team of three dozen international experts presents a fresh picture of literary prose fiction in the Romantic age seen from cross-cultural and interdisciplinary perspectives The work treats the appearance of major themes in characteristically Romantic versions the power of Romantic discourse to reshape imaginative writing and a series of crucial reactions to the impact of Romanticism on cultural life down to the present both in Europe and in the New World Through its combination of chapters on thematic generic and discursive features Romantic Prose Fiction achieves a unique theoretical stance by considering the opinions of primary Romantics and their successors not as guiding truths by which to define the permanent meaning of Romanticism but as data of cultural history that shed important light on an evolving civilization SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set order 5 vols The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves on into Modernism A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series total contents Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism s own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age

The Nation ,1895 Love at a Crux
Cameron Cross,2023-11-30 Love at a Crux presents the emergence of versified love stories in the New Persian language as a crucial event in the history of romance Using the tale of Vis R min w 1054 as its focal point the book explores how Persian court poets in the eleventh century reconfigured myths and fables from the distant past in ways that transformed the love story from a form of evening entertainment to a method of ethical political and affective self inquiry This transformation both anticipates and helps to explain the efflorescence of romance in many medieval cultures across the western flank of Afro Eurasia Bringing together traditions that are often sundered by modern disciplinary boundaries Love at a Crux unearths the interconnections between New Persian and comparable traditions in ancient and medieval Greek Arabic Georgian Old French and Middle High German offering scholars in classics medieval studies Middle Eastern literatures and premodern world literature a case study in literary history as connected history
