Abstract: This paper presents the results of a study on the effects of a 12-week intervention program on the self-efficacy of teachers in the use of technology in the classroom. The study was conducted in a sample of 100 teachers from a public school in the city of Bogotá, Colombia. The results show that the intervention program had a positive effect on the self-efficacy of teachers in the use of technology in the classroom.

These researchers from the University of Twente, the Netherlands, designed a course for all students and staff and were successful in introducing a system for interdisciplinary and cross-disciplinary work.

hair/salongs. Salongs are generally located in good areas, or expensive city, which are often located along the main or historic transportation routes, as well as being located in areas where there are a lot of businesses (businesses).

Abstract: An online film company, eMuseum, started by a student, provides the first online museum experience. An online tour provides a comprehensive view of the museum.
