Turmoil at Turfloop, 1976 Pamphlet on race relations in South Africa R presents a summary of two reports on relations generally and on racial conflict between African students and White African management of a university One page bibliography and one reference

Turfloop Testimony G. M. Nkondo, 1976 Background information on higher education for blacks in South Africa and a report on the University of the North is presented While the English language universities in South Africa have emphasized academic freedom and autonomy and have been open to nonwhite students the Afrikaans language universities have conformed to national policy and the social order and have been closed to blacks In 1959 legislation established universities exclusively for blacks and governed by whites based on a policy of separate development and a belief in fundamental racial differences The growth of black consciousness and sensitivity toward differential and discriminatory practices is considered along with confrontations that occurred between the State and the students of the University of the North Findings are presented of a one person judicial Commission of Inquiry the Snyman Commission which investigated management issues the causes of disturbances at the University of the North and the Black Academic Staff Association The Commission recommended introducing a largely black governing council and authorizing joint responsibility of blacks and whites for teaching and administrative functions allowing students to choose among universities and eliminating differential salaries and conditions for black and white staff The study commission's questionnaire items and answers are presented SW

Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan, 2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba

Buthelezi Ben Temkin, 2013-10-31 Ben Temkin Buthelezi's biographer had the full co operation of Chief Buthelezi in the writing of this book There were interviews and discussions in KwaZulu and in Johannesburg in offices at the airport in hotels in private homes and even while they travelled between centres in KwaZulu

Turfloop a Conscious Pariah Kanyane Chris Kanyane, Chris Kanyane, 2010 This book provides reflections on the butterfly effect on how Turfloop brought in the Age of Barack Obama What is the Age of Barack Obama To paraphrase Dr Ineke Van Kessel a prominent historian at the Leiden University in the Netherlands The University of the North also known as Turfloop played a vital role as the center of communication coordination ideological direction the engine of bringing the new South Africa was University of the North We approached this book like detectives Fortunately in our detective work we were not concerned with a particular agenda we were not trying to prove that a certain method of thinking was right or wrong We didn't want this book to be filled with personal opinions and biases We wanted this book to be juice and accessible to every person who reads it in whatever corner of the world We have to back up our story with facts of course and get other people to do practical analysis and later we added our own perspectives When we completed writing this book we passed it around amongst critical people spread across the globe

Most of them said that the book is somehow highbrow and at the same time all together lowbrow which came as a compliment A lot of people are somewhere in between We want this book to embody that because there are many people there we want them to appreciate this book The Secret in My Bosom Gomolemo Mokahe,1996 Parcel of Death Gaongalelwe Tiro,2019-08-01 Parcel of Death recounts the little told life story of Onkgopotse Abram Tiro the first South African freedom fighter the apartheid regime pursued beyond the country s borders to assassinate with a parcel bomb On 29 April 1972 Tiro made one of the most consequential revolutionary addresses in South African history Dubbed the Turfloop Testimony Tiro s anti apartheid speech saw him and many of his fellow student activists expelled igniting a series of strikes in tertiary institutions across the country By the time he went into exile in Botswana Tiro was president of the Southern African Student Movement SASM permanent organiser of the South African Student Organisation SASO and a leading Black Consciousness proponent hailed by many as the godfather of the June 1976 uprisings Parcel of Death uses extensive and exclusive interviews to highlight significant influences and periods in Tiro s life including the lessons learned from his rural upbringing in Dinokana Zeerust the time he spent working on a manganese mine his role as a teacher and the impact of his faith in shaping his outlook It is a compelling portrait of Tiro s story and its lasting significance in South Africa s history
