

GHANA TELECOM UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

GTUC's Admission Policy

GTUC admissions policy is based on the following principles:

- Admission offers are made to applicants who are deemed to have the background and abilities to have a reasonable expectation of success in the program to which they are made an offer of study.
- Admission offers are made broadly on merit based on academic achievements and achievements related to particular fields of endeavour.

GTUC has equal opportunity policy and shall admit students of any race, gender, nationality and ethnic origins.

GTUC has a rolling (open) Admissions System. This means that our admission forms are available all year round. There are presently three (3) enrollments sessions in a year:

- January- for Degree, Top-Up Degree and Diploma Programs.
- March- for Certificate programs
- September - for Degree, Top-Up Degree and Diploma and Certificate Programs

The Admission Office makes a telephone call or sends emails to all applicants who gain admission. This information is also available on the university website.

The deadlines for submission of applications (in months) are as follows:

- January intake is submitted by October,
- March intake is submitted by January, and
- September intake is submitted by May.

We also have Early Decision deadline. That is, applicants who submit their applications ahead of the deadline may be given admission (depending on the results) and notified of their admission on our website and on telephone before bulk admissions are done.

The specific dates for application deadlines for each intake are advertised in the newspapers and on our website at <http://www.gtuc.edu.gh>
