memory faulty or not dramatically or comically in a documentary feature film or short Hollywood may dominate 80 percent of cinema production but it is not the only voice World cinema is about those other voices Drawn initially from presentations from a series of film conferences held at the University of Texas at San Antonio this collection of essays covers multiple geographical linguistic and cultural areas worldwide emphasizing the historical and cultural interpretation of films

Appendices list films focusing on memory and invite readers to explore the films and issues raised Forgiveness and Resentment in the Aftermath of Mass Atrocity Idit Alphandary, 2023-12-04 The author's starting point is the interweaving of forgiveness and resentment in the works of Jewish writers after the Holocaust most especially Hannah Arendt and Jean Améry to make sense of the catastrophe and to point to a way forward for both victims and perpetrators The insights of these two writers and of several Jewish novelists and poets including Bruno Schulz Paul Celan and Aharon Appelfeld are used to develop accounts of forgiveness and resentment in other cases of mass atrocity around the world The author offers a critical rereading of primary sources that aim to separate resentment from nonviolent resistance and forgiveness from reconciliation Forgiveness and resentment are not as they might first appear mutually exclusive Together with Arendt Améry and Walter Benjamin it is argued that it is through the interaction between them that victims of mass atrocity become agents of personal and cultural change Together forgiveness and resentment interrupt the present reframe the past and shape the future They can reduce the chasm that separates memory and trust by fashioning new connections between identity and alterity which can open paths to truly ethical coexistence for victims and perpetrators and their descendants
