Shopping for a Yankee Swap Julia Kent, 2020-12-23 Christmas is nostalgia heaven for my family unless you count the Christmas tree fire last year which we won't Mom owns more holiday decorations than twelve area malls combined Dad prides himself on hand chopping the best live tree while my older sister perfected peppermint cookies to the point of orgasmic bliss and my younger sister has memorized every Christmas carol with her fingers for a piano bash that goes on and on And on But this year Christmas is different This year the McCormick men are joining the Yankee Swap You know how it works right Bring the craziest gift you can possibly find pick a number open the presents in order and play steal the gift until person Number One gets one last chance to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat My husband Declan is on a mission to win He's so sure he can find the absolutely positively unreservedly weirdest gift that he's willing to go to any extreme to find it Any extreme That's right He's going thrift store shopping with my mother The billionaire and the frugal queen are on a quest Only one will win And on Christmas evening after we're stuffed silly sung out the kids fall asleep and the adults break out the bizarre presents and the alcohol it'll be showtime Because there ain't no competition like a McCormick competition But the Jacoby family has a trick or ten up its sleeves too Declan and Shannon are back in yet another hilarious Christmas family saga in Julia Kent's New York Times bestselling romantic comedy series It's a competitive Yankee Swap what could go wrong Read and find out
