

Modelling Markets of Air Conditioning in Residential Premises

Abstract The use of air conditioning (AC) is increasing, not least in European cities, possibly against the climate.

Some examples of the statistical approaches currently being used.

But why not a better, more principled, a principled approach to these data?

1999

There is a very simple idea for a model of AC usage that is not only simple, but also statistically principled. It is based on the idea of a simple model of the climate.

Keywords AC usage
