Stuck in Neutral Cathie Jo Martin,2000 According to conventional wisdom big business wields enormous influence over America s political agenda and is responsible for the relatively limited scale of the country s social policies In Stuck in Neutral however Cathie Jo Martin challenges that view arguing that big business has limited involvement in social policy and in many instances desires broader social interventions Combining hundreds of in depth interviews with careful quantitative analysis Martin shows that there is strong support among managers for government sponsored training health work and family initiatives to enhance workers skills and productivity This support does not translate into political action surprisingly because big firms are not organized to intervene effectively Every large company has its own staff to deal with government affairs but overarching organizations for the most part lobby ineffectively for the collective interests of big business in the social realm By contrast small firms which cannot afford to lobby the government directly rely on representative associations to speak for them The unified voice of small business comes through much more clearly in policy circles than the diverse messages presented by individual corporations ensuring that the small business agenda of limited social policy prevails A vivid portrayal of the interplay between business and politics Stuck in Neutral offers a fresh take on some of the most controversial issues of our day It is a must read for anyone interested in the past present and future of the American welfare state and political economy strongly recommend Four Secrets to Liking Your Work to anyone who is experiencing difficulty in his or her work life. The Rev Dr Paul Debenport, Senior Pastor and Head of Staff, First Presbyterian Church of Albuquerque, is a must read. With a hands on approach and actual homework activities, it will change your whole outlook and give you the fresh start you need. The light at the end of the tunnel is no longer a train but the bright future of a renewed and refreshed perspective.

Robert H Mallory, Accredited Green Building Professional, Southwest Noise Control LLC: There are many guides to finding the right job out there but few others teach us to make the most of our current situation. The understanding of self and others taught in this book will help people to be at their most constructive whether they are working at home or in a more traditional environment.

Anne Laird, Homemaker Small Business Owner: Helped me understand what drives me and more importantly what drives the people I love and work with. This book will help anyone communicate more effectively, improve relationships and reduce the pain they feel at work.

Joseph Rodman, Director of Training and Education, Jaynes Construction: Working with others is unavoidable. This book gives you a deeper understanding of what makes them tick. It's a concise, easy read that will improve your personal and professional life.

Dr Donald E Conklin, Vice President, United Corporate Services Inc and Adjunct Professor, Dominican College MBA Program: Life is too short to not enjoy what you do. This book is a gem filled with practical, simple and direct advice for untangling the twisted nets of communication failures. It is as valuable to an employer trying to maintain high functioning teams as it is to an employee who is feeling dissatisfied.

R A Bobbi Hayes, CPA Partner, Accounting Consulting Group LLP: By internalizing the mind expanding principles presented in Four Secrets to Liking Your Work, I am now enjoying my work on a much deeper level. Many times when I thought my coworkers simply weren't getting it, it was actually I who wasn't getting it. There is no empty feel good rhetoric here; this book distinguishes itself from pop self improvement books by focusing on breaking through barriers with disciplined action instead of just giving you a pep talk. It provides the missing tools everybody needs.

Jim Foster, Vice President, Staffing and Human Capital: Liking your work is one of the greatest blessings in life and these authors know all about how to find or create that blessing. Those who follow this book's advice will see lights turn on wherever they are in the world of work.

Leaders, listen up! This book is not just about you but about everyone you work with. HR, listen up! This book will help with onboarding AND with retention.
