Postmodernism and Politics Jonathan Arac, 1986 Framed Narratives Jay Caplan, 1986 The Routledge Handbook of Architecture, Urban Space and Politics, Volume II Nikolina Bobic, Farzaneh Haghighi, 2024-11-22

Architecture and the urban are connected to challenges around violence security race and ideology spectacle and data The first volume of this handbook extensively explored these oppressive roles This second volume illustrates that escaping the corporatized and bureaucratized orders of power techno managerial and consumer oriented capitalist economic models is more urgent and necessary than ever before Herein lies the political role of architecture and urban space including the ways through which they can be transformed and alternative political realities constituted The volume explores the methods and spatial practices required to activate the political dimension and the possibility for alternative practices to operate in the existing oppressive systems while not being swallowed by these structures Fostering new political consciousness is explored in terms of the following themes Events and Dissidence Biopolitics Ethics and Desire Climate and Ecology Urban Commons and Social Participation Marginalities and Postcolonialism Volume II embraces engagement across disciplines and offers a wide range of projects and critical analyses across the so called Global North and South This multidisciplinary collection of 36 chapters provides the reader with an extensive resource of case studies and ways of thinking for architecture and urban space to become more emancipatory Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license On Textual Understanding and Other Essays Peter Szondi, 1986 The Truth of History C. Behan McCullagh, 2002-11 Modern relativism and postmodern thought in culture and language challenge the truth of history This book considers how historians confined by argument of their own cultures can still discover truths about the past Authoring the Past Alun Munslow, 2012-11-12 Please explain why you think about and write history as you do Collecting together the responses to this question from 15 of the world's foremost historians and theorists Authoring the Past represents a powerful reflection on and intervention in the historiographical field Edited by Alun Munslow and presented in concise digestible essays the collection covers a broad range of contemporary interests and ideas and offers a rich set of reasoned alternative thoughts on our cultural engagement with times gone by Emerging from an intensely fertile period of historical thought and practice Authoring the Past examines the variety of approaches to the discipline that have taken shape during this time and suggests possible future ways of thinking about and interacting with the past It provides a unique insight into recent debates on the nature and purpose of history and demonstrates that when diverse metaphysical and aesthetic choices are made the nature of the representation of the past becomes a matter of legitimate dispute Students scholars and practitioners of history will find it a stimulating and invaluable resource Mikhail Bakhtin Tzvetan Todorov, 1984 Le Différend Jean-François Lyotard, 1988 In The Differend Lyotard subjects to scrutiny from the particular perspective of his notion of differend difference in the sense of dispute the turn of all

Western philosophies toward language the decline of metaphysics the present intellectual retreat of Marxism the hopes raised and mostly dashed by theory and the growing political despair Taking his point of departure in an analysis of what Auschwitz meant philosophically Lyotard attempts to sketch out modes of thought for our present

Truth Claims in a Post-Truth World Erkan Ali, 2023-08-18 Drawing on debates from a multi disciplinary perspective this book examines what it means to offer a genuine sociological critique of religious faith illiberalism and anti secularism from a macro perspective Arguing that as a discipline concerned with real issues in the social world sociology should be at the forefront of any analysis of religious power and legitimacy the author contends that much religious faith is fundamentally incompatible with any twenty first century society that seeks inclusive utilitarian and humanistic principles as its goals With an emphasis on sociology the effects of organised religion s overall decline in modern Western contexts are explored while the troubling re emergence or persistence of faith based and other non evidentiary perspectives is also discussed via debates around identity politics postmodernism and multiculturalism Through an analysis of the rise of irrational thinking in our politics and our entire social and cultural fabric the book moves to conclude that religious beliefs and other forms of dogmatism are underpinned by powerful influential and potentially dangerous ideological structures at various levels of society and that viable secular alternatives to faith teachings ought to be nurtured in their place A critique of religion that advances modern secular humanistic thought Truth Claims in a Post Truth World will appeal to scholars of sociology social theory and philosophy with interests in religion political thought ethics and civil society

Systematic Theology, Volume 1, Fourth Edition James Leo Garrett Jr., 2014-09-14 Rivals the major systematic theologies of this century Baptist History and Heritage Journal July 1996 One of the characteristics of Garrett s system that needs especially to be noted is its balanced judicious and nearly invariably objective presentation of materials While holding true to the teachings of his own Baptist faith Garrett so carefully and judiciously presents alternatives that teachers and students from other confessional and denominational positions will find his work instructive Consensus 1997 If one is searching for an extensive exposition of the biblical foundations and historical developments of the various loci of systematic theology there is no more complete presentation in a relatively short work than this Pastors will especially find this feature to be a real help in teaching theology It is an indispensable contribution to the task of systematic theology Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society September 1999 Many students and pastors will find all they need here and will in addition be helped to relate their knowledge to recent developments in the theological world The Churchman A Journal of Anglican Theology 1991 A gold mine of helpful material The Christian Century May 29 June 5 1991 No book that I know is more loaded with biblical and theological facts than this one The prodigious research that must have gone into the preparation of this volume is truly mind boggling Faith and Mission Fall 1991 Garrett has provided a massive and scholarly systematic theology from a thoroughly conservative and comprehensive viewpoint The work is well documented in both biblical and historical scholarship and will prove to be a
