Time to Think Hannah Barnes,2024-07-02 SHORTLISTED FOR THE BAILLIE GIFFORD PRIZE FOR NON FICTION SHORTLISTED FOR THE ORWELL PRIZE FOR POLITICAL WRITING This is what journalism is for Observer Time to Think goes behind the headlines to reveal the truth about the collapse of the world s largest gender service for children Are we hurting children That s the core question at the heart of Time to Think which exposes the truth about the rise and fall of the United Kingdom s flagship gender identity clinic for children Answering in the affirmative it exposes how ideology triumphed over evidence within this part of the healthcare system In the process child safeguarding was overlooked and pediatric patients were medically harmed As investigative journalist Hannah Barnes reveals the Tavistock s Gender Identity Development Service GIDS was set up initially to provide talking therapies to young people who were questioning their gender identity But in a little over a decade it referred around two thousand children some as young as nine years old for medication to block their puberty In the same period with ever greater numbers of children in need of treatment the profile of the patients changed from largely pre pubescent boys to mostly adolescent girls who were often contending with other medical and psychological difficulties GIDS was shut down by English health authorities in March 2024 and new services will not be able to prescribe these profound medical interventions Yet GIDS s approach to treating children with gender identity distress was in fact more cautious than that observed in other countries including notably in the United States This urgent scrupulous and dramatic book explains how GIDS was the site of a serious medical scandal As this scandal continues to unfold and even accelerate within other institutions and across countries it is a gripping parable and disturbing cautionary tale for our times

Brexit and the Northern Ireland Constitution Lisa Claire Whitten,2023-11-27 Brexit and the Northern Ireland Constitution considers the intersection of two processes the complex and constitutional process of the United Kingdom s withdrawal from the European Union Brexit and the steady yet fragile development of the Northern Ireland constitution deriving primarily from the Belfast Good Friday Agreement of 1998 Interdisciplinary in approach the analysis draws on legal and political theory to develop a novel framework for assessing the progressive impact of Brexit on the Northern Ireland constitution based on systematic definitions of both This approach elucidates dynamics and implications not yet considered in the otherwise extensive debates about Brexit and its impacts on Northern Ireland Based on detailed analysis of the Brexit process it is argued that its impact on the constitution of Northern Ireland has been profound Fundamentally Brexit changed the political and legal environment in which the Northern Ireland constitution had existed for over twenty years Embracing constructive ambiguity the 1998 Agreement recognises and accommodates the concerns of both unionists and nationalists in Northern Ireland it did not therefore solve the constitutional conflict but rather allowed it to be managed differently through an innovative system of multileveled governance within Northern Ireland power sharing devolution on the island of Ireland North South cooperation and between the islands of Great Britain and Ireland East West cooperation all underpinned by a multifaceted principle of constitutional popular and cross community consent By forcing a paradigmatic shift in the way that the systems of government established by the 1998 Agreement operate Brexit disrupted the constructively ambiguous compromise that it represents Completed two years after the legal implementation of UK withdrawal from the EU Whitten concludes by considering the potential longer term constitutional repercussions of Brexit both within and beyond Northern Ireland's recently notorious borders
