The result is this invaluable resource collection that not only reflects upon the condition of social work today but also looks to future developments. Dominion Law Reports, 2008 Child Welfare Reports, 1946 Associations Canada, 2002 The Child's World Jan Horwath, Janet Anne Basarab-Horwath, 2010 Rev. ed. of The child's world: assessing children in need 2001 Public Social Services to Children, 1946 Preventing Child Maltreatment Kenneth A. Dodge, Doriane Lambelet Coleman, 2009-06-18 Many child abuse prevention programs have targeted factors within the family such as parenting skills. This book describes the next wave of prevention: the promotion of safer, healthier childrearing environments in entire communities. The contributors are leading authorities who illuminate how contextual factors including poverty, chaotic neighborhoods, and lack of social supports combine with family factors to place children at risk for maltreatment. They present a range of exemplary programs designed to strengthen communities while also helping individual parents to meet their children's needs. Real-world evaluation approaches, quality control strategies, and policy implications are discussed in depth. Who Speaks for America's Children? Carol J. De Vita, Rachel Mosher-Williams, 2001 Because nonprofit and voluntary organizations are primary vehicles of citizen action and participation, they serve as important mechanisms to understand how the needs of children can be heard in the policymaking process and how the quality of children's lives can be improved. In Who Speaks for America's Children, leading experts in children's health, policy, education, policy, community organizing, and sociology focus on the ways nonprofit organizations and community groups influence policymaking on children's issues. Seven chapters frame the issues, raise critical questions, and explore opportunities for further study. Annual Reports on the Health of the County Borough of Darlington for the Year ..., 1934 The Economist, 1924
