

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2014 series

2281 ECONOMICS

2281/22

Paper 2 (Structured Questions), maximum raw mark 90

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2014 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

Economic Warfare Teoman M. Hagemeyer-Witzleb, 2021-07-14 Since the prohibition of the threat or use of force and the resurgence of economic nationalism economic warfare has become an increasingly important substitute for actual hostilities between states Its manifestations range from medieval sieges to modern day trade wars Despite its long history economic warfare remains an elusive term foreign to international law This book seeks to identify those portions of international law that are applicable to economic warfare What is the status quo of regulation Is there a jus ad bellum oeconomicum A jus in bello oeconomico After putting forward its own definition of economic warfare the book reviews historical case studies reflecting the three main branches of international economic law trade investment and currency to identify pertinent legal boundaries While the case studies reveal that numerous rules of international economic law regulate specific measures of economic warfare it remains to be seen whether analogously to the prohibition of the threat or use of force these selective limitations have the potential to coalesce into a general prohibition of economic warfare in the future      Daily Trade
