Arabic L2 Interlanguage Ghassan Husseinali, 2015-10-23 Arabic L2 Interlanguage is a significant and timely addition to the field of Second Language Acquisition providing valuable insight into the development of interlanguage the interim language of early beginners in learners of Arabic This book Clearly establishes what interlanguage is and why it should form an important part of foreign language teaching Presents the reader with a sequence in which six English speaking learners of Arabic acquire the language Makes use of the rich morphological and syntactic property of Arabic to offer a new perspective on the field of Second Language Acquisition Arabic L2 Interlanguage contributes directly towards building a more comprehensive theoretical framework for explaining how L2s are acquired It will be key text for SLA scholars as well as an important resource for graduate students in Linguistics and Foreign Language Teaching

Business Networks in Syria Bassam S. A. Haddad, 2011-12-07 Collusion between business communities and the state can lead to a measure of security for those in power but this kind of interaction often limits new development In Syria state business involvement through informal networks has contributed to an erratic economy With unique access to private businessmen and select state officials during a critical period of transition this book examines Syria s political economy from 1970 to 2005 to explain the nation s pattern of state intervention and prolonged economic stagnation As state income from oil sales and aid declined collusion was a bid for political security by an embattled regime To achieve a modicum of economic growth the Syrian regime would develop ties with select members of the business community reserving the right to reverse their inclusion in the future Haddad ultimately reveals that this practice paved the way for forms of economic agency that maintained the security of the regime but diminished the development potential of the state and the private sector Meeting Handbook Linguistic Society of America,2005

Intercultural Communication and Language Pedagogy Zsuzsanna Abrams,2020-08-27 Using diverse language examples and tasks this book illustrates how intercultural communication theory can inform second language teaching Alif Baa , Handbook for Arabic Language Teaching Professionals in the 21st Century, Volume II Kassem M. Wahba,Liz England,Zeinab A. Taha,2017-07-06 Drawing on the collective expertise of language scholars and educators in a variety of subdisciplines the Handbook for Arabic Language Teaching Professionals in the 21st Century Volume II provides a comprehensive treatment of teaching and research in Arabic as a second and foreign language worldwide Keeping a balance among theory research and practice the content is organized around 12 themes Trends and Recent Issues in Teaching and Learning Arabic Social Political and Educational Contexts of Arabic Language Teaching and Learning Identifying Core Issues in Practice Language Variation Communicative Competence and Using Frames in Arabic Language Teaching and Learning Arabic Programs Goals Design and Curriculum Teaching and Learning Approaches Content Based Instruction and Curriculum Arabic Teaching and Learning Classroom Language Materials and Language Corpora Assessment Testing and Evaluation Methodology of Teaching Arabic Skills and Components Teacher Education and Professional Development Technology Mediated Teaching and Learning Future Directions The field faces new challenges since the publication of Volume I including increasing and diverse demands motives and needs for learning Arabic across various contexts of use a need for accountability and academic research given the growing recognition of the complexity and diverse contexts of teaching Arabic and an increasing shortage of and need for quality of instruction Volume II addresses these challenges It is designed to generate a dialogue continued from Volume I among professionals in the field leading to improved practice and to facilitate interactions not only among individuals but also among educational institutions within a single country and across different countries Routledge Handbook of Arabic Second Language Acquisition

Mohammad Alhawary,2018-05-04 The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Second Language Acquisition introduces major current approaches in Arabic second language acquisition SLA research and offers empirical findings on crucial aspects and issues to do with the learning of Arabic as a foreign language and Arabic SLA It brings together leading academics in the field to synthesize existing research and develops a new framework for analyzing important topics within Arabic SLA This handbook will be suitable as a reference work for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students and scholars actively researching in this area and is primarily relevant to sister disciplines within teacher training and Arabic applied linguistics The themes and findings should however also be attractive to other areas of study including theoretical linguistics psycholinguistics cognition and cognitive psychology

Networks of Privilege in the Middle East: The Politics of Economic Reform Revisited S. Heydemann, 2004-08-20 This volume explores the role of informal networks in the politics of Middle Eastern economic reform The editor's introduction demonstrates how network based models overcome limitations in existing approaches to the politics of economic reform The following chapters show how business state networks in Egypt Morocco Tunisia Syria Lebanon and Jordan have affected privatization programs and the reform of fiscal policies They help us understand patterns and variation in the organization and outcome of economic reform programs including the opportunities that economic reforms offered for reorganizing networks of economic privilege across the Middle East

Book Steven Berbeco, 2011-08-19 Abstract In this study I propose a strong and innovative model of teaching that centers on the student and I report on the efficacy of this model using quantitative research procedures This model of teaching is systematized in the Marhaba curriculum a method of teaching first year high school Arabic that I designed tested and evaluated The Marhaba curriculum is founded on best practices and is a natural outgrowth of contemporary education theories including non linear curriculum design and multiple modality teaching materials that take into consideration students diverse learning styles Analysis of data indicates that use of the Marhaba curriculum positively influences student proficiency in Arabic In particular students become proficient regardless of a student's gender grade socioeconomic status or parent educational background Also student proficiency is not dependent on a student's attitude to learning or engagement in class or a student's attitude toward the curriculum
