of other Muslim women living in Italy revealing the wide variety of Muslim identities and the common prejudices they encounter Looking at Italian school textbooks newspapers and TV programs she invites us to change the way Muslim immigrants and especially women are depicted in both news reports and scholarly research Islam and Me is a meditation on our multireligious multiethnic and multilingual reality as well as an exploration of how we might reimagine national culture and identity so that they become more diverse inclusive and anti racist

In My Life John England,2016-08-01 John England uses the words of the song to bring to life his memories of places and people he has known and loved The memoirs are a personal account of life family and career with reflections on many themes particularly music This book will be a surprise to those who know John and those that don t John England uses quotes from a lot of different sources to comment and entertain It is a very readable account of the life and times of someone who has had a successful professional career and a private life touched by sadness but who has found happiness again

Behind the Wire Philip Kaplan,2013-01-19 Philip Kaplan presents us here with a riveting account of the Allied experience behind enemy lines detailing the trials and tribulations experienced by the British and American airmen who were shot down in European skies during World War Two to be incarcerated behind the wire in enemy camps With eloquence and a clear enthusiasm for the subject at hand the author describes how various individuals adjusted to their incarceration Whilst some set their minds resolutely on escape and dreamt up plots and plans to achieve this end others retreated away from their comrades and into themselves as the grim reality of their predicament pushed them ever deeper into debilitating depression Others were determined that they would not waste their time affected by the quick and brutal deaths they had witnessed during their wartime careers they were unwilling to sit idle Theatres recreational areas and other camp facilities were designed and built a creative spur that made their time behind the wire and the quality of life of their fellow comrades infinitely more bearable These small acts of enterprising heroism alongside the harrowing tales of those who crumpled under the weight of their prison reality combine to create a complete picture of this collective experience Kaplan s skill lies in informing the reader of the facts of this history with both honesty and reverence
