Have you ever wondered why some people seem to get all the good things life offers while others stand on the sidelines and wonder why not? Some people will tell you it's ambition, IQ, and position that determines life's outcomes. What if I told you there was something within each of us that promises greater happiness and success? It's called Emotional Intelligence, and it is available to you by simply reading this book and following the six steps presented in these pages. Feelings are what drives us in life. We do what we do to change how we feel. We buy a luxury car so that we can feel powerful and important. We lose weight so that we can feel beautiful and admired. Although you think you can do things to change or avoid feelings, in truth, you already possess those things for which you dream. All you must do is gain awareness and change your perceptions and act on the feelings that will give you greater Emotional Intelligence. It doesn't take wealth, beauty, or brains to increase your Emotional Intelligence. It takes awareness, knowledge, and practice, which won't cost you anything but a little time. So journey with me through the pages of this book and together let's discover how you can have all the good things life has to offer.

Teaching with Emotional Intelligence Alan Mortiboys, 2005. Featuring lots of jargon-free activities, checklists, and points for deeper reflection, the guidance in this book aims to help teachers encourage their learners to become more engaged, creative, and motivated through the use of emotional intelligence.
