Sequence (Reading Level 3.0-4.5) | Short Passages | Comprehension Activities MJ Owen, 2022-05-09 Reading Skills Activities Reading Comprehension Sequence Improve Overall Reading Comprehension with Targeted Specific Skill Practice Focusing on one comprehension skill at a time gives students the opportunity to master that skill and improve their general reading and comprehension skills

Sequence Understanding the sequence of a story means knowing the order in which events happen A good introduction to this skill is explaining that sequence is about time Most events in a story are written in chronological order There are things that happen in the beginning middle and end of a story

Skill Specific Activities There are 15 high interest short stories in this selection that include a variety of fiction and non fiction topics The follow up questions guide students to find the sequence of events Key words to look for when reading are first last next before after later during then while and finally Each story is numbered instead of having a title The last question for each story asks the students to give the story a title This important activity helps to determine the student s level of understanding the story s main idea

Visual Lesson Each story has an engaging illustration designed to bring the story to life and help capture the interest of reluctant readers To help sharpen inference skills students can be asked to use the illustration to predict what the story is about

Teaching Opportunities These targeted activities are great for one on one intervention small groups of students at multiple skill levels or whole class participation Activities can be used for remediation review and transition classes

Details Each short story is between 140 and 160 words and is written at a 3.0 to 4.5 reading level according to the Flesch Kincaid Readability Scale The interest level is grades 4 and up

Contents Include 15 high interest short stories 15 pages of skill specific questions focusing on Sequence Answer Key

Finding Facts Improve Overall Reading Comprehension with Targeted Specific Skill Practice Focusing on one comprehension skill at a time gives students the opportunity to master that skill and improve their general reading and comprehension skills

Finding Facts Being able to find the facts in a story is a basic yet essential comprehension skill It helps to lay the foundation for success in mastering other comprehension skills You may want to introduce this skill by explaining to students that facts are small bits of information that make up the whole of a story

topics The follow up questions guide students to find the facts The facts might be who what where when or why Or they might be the names of people and places dates times and numbers Each story is numbered instead of having a title The last question for each story asks the students to give the story a title This important activity helps to determine the student s level of understanding the story s main idea Visual Lesson Each story has an engaging illustration designed to bring the story to life and help capture the interest of reluctant readers To help sharpen inference skills students can be asked to use the illustration to predict what the story is about Teaching Opportunities These targeted activities are great for one on one intervention small groups of students at multiple skill levels or whole class participation Can be used for remediation review and transition classes Details Each short story is between 140 and 160 words and is written at a 3 0 to 4 5 reading level according to the Flesch Kincaid Readability Scale The interest level is grades 4 and up Contents Include 15 high interest short stories 15 pages of skill specific questions focusing on Finding Facts Answer Key Fact & Opinion (Reading Level

3-4.5) | Short Passages | Comprehension Activities MJ Owen,2022-05-09 Reading Skills Activities Reading Comprehension Facts and Opinions Improve Overall Reading Comprehension with Targeted Specific Skill Practice Focusing on one comprehension skill at a time gives students the opportunity to master that skill and improve their general reading and comprehension skills Fact Opinion Being able to tell a fact from an opinion is an important reading skill to master It allows the reader to make a sound judgment about the information presented in a story To introduce this skill explain the difference between a fact and an opinion Fact a fact is something that is true about a subject It can be tested and proven Opinion an opinion is what someone thinks or feels about a subject Skill Specific Activities There are 15 high interest short stories in this selection include a variety of fiction and non fiction topics The follow up questions guide students to Facts and Opinions Each story is numbered instead of having a title The last question for each story asks the students to give the story a title This important activity helps to determine the student s level of understanding the story s main idea Visual Lesson Each story has an engaging illustration designed to bring the story to life and help capture the interest of reluctant readers To help sharpen inference skills students can be asked to use the illustration to predict what the story is about Teaching Opportunities These targeted activities are great for one on one intervention small groups of students at multiple skill levels or whole class participation Can be used for remediation review and transition classes Details Each short story is between 140 and 160 words and is written at a 3 0 to 4 5 reading level according to the Flesch Kincaid Readability Scale The interest level is grades 4 and up Contents Include 15 high interest short stories 15 pages of skill specific questions focusing on Facts and Opinions Answer Key Drawing Conclusions \(Reading Level 3-4.5\) | Short Passages | Practice Activities MJ Owen,2022-05-09 Reading Skills Activities Reading Comprehension Draw Conclusions Improve Overall Reading Comprehension with Targeted Specific Skill Practice Focusing on one comprehension skill at a time gives students the opportunity to master that skill and improve their general reading and comprehension skills Drawing Conclusions Being able to draw a conclusion is a higher level comprehension skill It can be confusing A conclusion is not something that is directly stated in a story Students must conclude something based on reading the details of a story Introduce students to the concept of drawing a conclusion by explaining that this means making a decision about something you have read based on information in the story Conclusions can fill in the meaning of a story Skill Specific Activities There are 15 high interest short stories in this selection include a variety of fiction and non fiction topics The follow up questions guide students to Draw Conclusions Each story is numbered instead of having a title The last question for each story asks the students to give the story a title This important activity helps to determine the student s level of understanding the story s main idea Visual Lesson Each story has an engaging illustration designed to bring the story to life and help capture the interest of reluctant readers To help sharpen inference skills students can be asked to use the illustration to predict what the story is about Teaching Opportunities These targeted activities are great for one on one intervention small groups of students at multiple skill levels or whole class participation Can be used for remediation review and transition classes Details Each short story is between 140 and 160 words and is written at a 3 0 to 4 5 reading level according to the Flesch Kincaid Readability Scale The interest level is grades 4 and up Contents Include 15 high interest short stories 15 pages of skill specific questions focusing on Drawing Conclusions Answer Key
