Alice's Adventures in Wonderland Retold in Words of One Syllable Lewis Carroll, Alice had sat on the bank by her sister till she was tired. Once or twice she had looked at the book her sister held in her hand, but there were no pictures in it, and what is the use of a book, thought Alice, without pictures? She asked herself as well as she could for the hot day made her feel quite dull. If it would be worth while to get up and pick some daisies to make a chain, just then a white rabbit with pink eyes ran close by her. That was not such a strange thing, nor did Alice think it so much out of the way to hear the rabbit say, 'Oh dear, Oh dear, I shall be late!' But when the rabbit took a watch out of its pocket and looked at it, and then ran on, Alice started to her feet for she knew that was the first time she had seen a rabbit with a watch. She jumped up and ran to get a look at it and was just in time to see it pop down a large rabbit hole near the hedge As fast as she could go Alice went down the hole after it and did not once stop to think how in the world she was to get out The hole went straight on for some way and then turned down with a sharp bend so sharp that Alice had no time to think to stop till she found herself falling in what seemed a deep well Alice's Adventures In Wonderland Retold In Words Of One Syllable Mrs. J.
